Nobel Winner Hit By Dixie Extremist

SELMA, Ala. (UPI) — A member of a white extremist organization today struck Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. with his first shortly after the integration leader was registered in a plush downtown hotel.

The incident came after King had been registered without fanfare along with 12 other Negroes in the centruy-old Hotel Albert. And it followed a massive and successful integration drive by King and some 300 Negroes that had taken place without opposition from city officials.

The man who slugged King was identified as Jerry Robinson, a member of the National States Rights party. Robinson had worked his way through a small crowd in the lobby of the hotel and asked King if he could speak to him.

"What do you want?" King replied.

Then Robinson struck King a glancing blow on the right cheek, rocking King backward.

King's associates swarmed on the white man and pinned his arms to his sides.

Two police officers standing nearby rushed into the crowd, grabbed Robinson and told him, "You are under arrest."

King immediately went to his room where he took a pill. He said he had a slight headache from the blow.

The integration leader said the hotel manager, Robert Gay, apologized to him and said he

Life Slowly Ebbs From Sir Winston

Churchill Has Restful Night; Condition Weak

LONDON (AP)—Sir Winston Churchill, his life slowly ebbing, was a little weaker today, a medical bulletin said.

The bulletin was issued by Churchill's personal physician and lifelong friend, Lord Moran, after a visit to the 90-year-old statesman this morning.

It said that otherwise there was nothing to report on the old man's condition.

The text of the bulletin:

"Sir Winston had a restful night. He is a little weaker, but otherwise there is nothing to report."

This was the seventh bulletin since Churchill was struck by cerebral thrombosis Friday. All have told of the steady decline of the aged statesman.

Lord Moran left the Churchill home immediately after issuing the bulletin. Asked by reporters whether Churchill was taking any nourishment, he said:

"I don't think I'll answer that."

Moran examined Churchill twice yesterday. After the second examination he said: "After a restless start, Sir Winston has had a peaceful day, but he has lost ground."

Churchill's three surviving children stayed late with Lady Churchill now 79, near the bedside, dispersing only in the early hours this morning.

His actress daughter Sarah, 49, said as she left: "He is sleeping peacefully."

Sir Winston's son, Randolph, and grandson, Winston Spencer Churchill, 24, left grave-faced after 1 a.m. without comment. The younger daughter Mary, wife of former Cabinet minister Christopher Soames, stayed on with her mother.

Medical authorities said yesterday night's medical bulletin, coupled with earlier indications of pulse irregularity and restlessness, foretold a gradual slackening of the old man's hold on life.

Karate Expert Battles Police After Smashup

THEY GOT KARATE LESSON— Patrolman George Newman of Larkspur police has his sore ribs bandaged by Dr. Thomas L. Grayson as Patrolman Raymond De Leon waits his turn for examination. The officers chased a car until it crashed yesterday—and the driver emerged to use karate in a wild struggle until they subdued him with help of an ambulance attendant.

Officers, Suspect Injured

George Newman, a Larkspur police officer seeking to help a man injured in an auto accident, was picked up by the victim, twirled overhead and slammed to the ground early yesterday.

Another Larkspur patrolman, Raymond De Leon, was given a judo chop on the back of the neck before the two, along with three bystanders and an ambulance attendant, could subdue Peter Halaula Kalua, 28, of Gate Five Marinship.

CHASE, CRASH

Kalua, on probation from conviction of battery last November in Sausalito, led police in a 90 mile-an-hour chase up Sir Francis Drake Boulevard. The chase ended when Kalua's auto knocked over a traffic sign and two light poles at Wolfe Grade and went through a fence onto the Eggers Brothers Nursery property at 700 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

He was treated at Marin General Hospital for slight injuries to his head and right elbow, then booked in Marin County jail on charges of resisting arrest, reckless driving and failure to heed a flashing red light and siren.

He was held today on $550 bail, with a separate hold placed on him by the county probation office.

KARATE EXPERT

Kalua stands six feet three inches and weighs 200 pounds. He is reportedly an expert at Karate. The two Larkspur officers believe it.

Newman complained of pains in his back and side, but X-rays taken at the hospital showed no broken bones. He was to receive further examinations today, however, for possible rib fractures. De Leon was treated for a severe headache and neck pain.

The chase started about 12:45

Johnson Asks Less Money For Military

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson told Congress today the United States "is stronger militarily than at any other time in our peacetime history."

Johnson, sending a 4,000 word special message to Congress, disclosed that he expects to submit a budget calling for defense spending of $49 billion, a drop of $300 million from this year's level and $2.3 billion less than last year.

The President unveiled three major new weapons systems he is proposing to begin this year.

One is a new missile system, the Poseidon, to increase the striking power of Polaris submarines.

"The Poseidon missile will have double the payload of the highly successful Polaris A3," he said.

The Polaris A3, with a range of nearly 2,900 miles, carries a nuclear warhead equivalent to the explosive power of about 800,000 tons of TNT.

Johnson said the increased accuracy and flexibility of the Poseidon will permit its use effectively "against a broader range of possible targets and give added insurance of penetration of enemy defenses."

Another disclosure was a series of what Johnson called "remarkable new payloads for strategic missiles."

These, he said, include "penetration aids," decoy devices to assure that missiles hit their targets through any defense; guidance and re-entry vehicle designs to increase many times

LBJ AID ENLISTED TO SAVE THE GATE

Conservationists Seek Marincello Delay Pending Completion Of Area Master Plan

President Lyndon B. Johnson was urged yesterday to make a federal project of "saving the Golden Gate from land development."

A group of Bay Area conservationists, styling themselves the Committee To Save the Golden Gate, wired the President asking federal purchase and preservation of the headland on which Frouge Corp. plans to develop the city of Marincello.

The committee announced also that it will ask the Marin County Board of Supervisors tomorrow to defer approval of planned community zoning for the area pending a master plan of the southwestern part of Marin.

Peter D. Whitney of Inverness is executive director of the committee, which he said is sponsored by the Marin County Scenic Roads Assn. Among members are Mrs. Norman B. Livermore of Ross; George W. Wheelwright, Muir Beach rancher; Martin Friedman of Mill Valley, secretary of the Bay chapter executive committee of the Sierra Club; Ansel Adams of Carmel, famous scenic photographer; T. J. Kent Jr. of Berkeley, chairman of the department of city and regional planning at University of California, and Mel Scott, professor of city and regional planning at U.C.

Whitney said the committee's basis for its appeal to the Pres-

Young Turk Generals Seated In Viet Cabinet Reshuffle

SAIGON (UPI)—South Vietnamese Prime Minister Tran Van Huong today reshuffled his 75-day-old cabinet. He gave cabinet posts to four generals and removed two ministers who had drawn considerable criticism Buddhist activists.

One of the generals taken into the cabinet was Nguyen Cao Ky, commander of the South Vietnamese air force. He was named minister of youth and sports, a potentially sensitive job that involves relations with Viet Nam's restless students.

Named armed forces minister, equivalent to defense minister, was armed forces chief of staff Maj. Gen. Tran Van Minh. Appointed second deputy prime minister was 4th Army Corps commander Maj. Gen. Nguyen Van Thieu.

A fourth general, Brig. Gen. Linh Quang Vien, who has been director of security in the armed forces, was named to take over a newly created ministry of psychological warfare that incorporates the former Information Ministry.

In other cabinet changes announced by Huong today, Deputy Prime Minister Nguyen Xuan Oanh was dropped from one of two equally ranking deputy premierships to the rank of third deputy prime minister, and Huynh Van Dao, civilian director of cabinet of the armed forces ministry, was named minister of finance.

An American Embassy spokesman called the cabinet changes "a positive and helpful

$3.2 Million Income For Birchers

LOS ANGELES (AP)— The John Birch Society's gross income in 1964 was $3.2 million, or double the income for 1963, the society's national public relations director said today.

John Rousselot, who is also the publisher of the Birch monthly magazine, American Opnion, said the income came almost exclusively from membership dues and contributions.

Expenditures for last year nearly equalled income, Rousselot said.

Reed Benson, son of former Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson, has established residence in Washington, D.C., and soon will open a Birch informational office, Rousselot said.

Marinites Injured In Sierra Head-On

Eight Marin County persons were hurt, three seriously, in the head-on crash of two cars on Highway 28 at Tahoe Vista yesterday.

Hospitalized overnight in Truckee were Dwight A. Merritt, 37, of San Rafael; his wife, Dorothy, 35, and their 11-year-old son, Stephen, all of whom suffered multiple cuts and scrapes. They were transferred this morning to a Marin County hospital.

Another son, 8-year-old Kevin, was treated in Truckee for a forehead cut, while three other children were brought to Marin by a friend and treated at Marin General Hospital for lesser injuries.

These were Jeff, 12, with a bumped head; David, 13, with a cut face and right leg, and Michael, 9, with an injury to his left shoulder.

The California Highway Patrol said the family, who live at 26 Unionstone Drive, Marinwood, was riding in a car driven by Herman M. Barber, 37, of 134 Magee Avenue, Mill Valley. Barber was slightly hurt.

The Barber car was hit in a "head-on side-swipe" by the car of Margaret A. Parsons, 19, of Cupertino. She and a 17-year-old San Jose girl with her suffered major injuries, the patrol said.

A total of 12 persons were listed as injured, including still another passenger in the Barber car, 71-year-old Henry J. Hoe of St. Louis, Mo.

The patrol said Miss Parsons' car apparently slid on the icy highway and crossed the center line.

Planners Urged To Seek Appeal Of Lot-Split Law

The Marin County Planning Commission was urged today to recommend repeal of the lot-split ordinance, passed as an emergency measure by supervisors last October.

Attorney Bryan McCarthy presented petition for repeal signed by 291 residents of West Marin.

The commission, however, continued its discussion of the ordinance until its Feb. 1 meeting, and agreed to ask county supervisors to extend the 90-day review period until the commission can complete its recommendations.

When supervisors passed the ordinance, they said they would consider it again in 90 days, and the 90-day period will end Jan. 27.

The ordinance was described as "a nefarious piece of legislation" by Douglas Hertz of Novato, a West Marin property owner. It was "sneaked into the supervisors" and there was no public hearing, Hertz said.

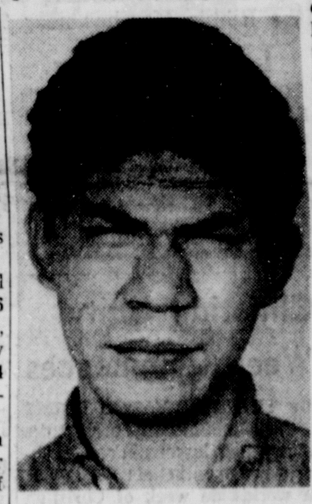

Passage of the ordinance has tied up real estate sales and purchases, he said.

The ordinance calls for improvements such as curbs, gutters and drainage when there are divisions of land into two or Soviets Promise Payment To U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The Soviet chief delegate, Nikolai T. Fedorenko, told U.N. Secretary-General U Thant today the Soviet Union will make a substantial voluntary contribution toward U.N. solvency—once the General Assembly has resumed voting.

The United States has insisted that the Soviet Union make a payment before being allowed to vote.

Fedorenko's restatment of the Soviet position meant that the Soviet-U.S. deadlock on the issue persisted, just before the assembly's afternoon resumption of its 19th annual session.

Fedorenko paid a half-hour call on Thant and then issued his statement.

The Pleasant Grove and Bethany Baptist churches, both used for Negro voter registration rallies recently, burned to the ground early yesterday.

Richard Haley of New Orleans, CORE's southern director, wired McKeithen:

"One month ago, John Morris died a flaming torch in Ferriday. Today two Negro churches lie in ashes in Jonesboro. CORE urges complete investigation instead of platitudes."

Morris was a Ferriday businessman. His shop was reported to have been set afire and he was seen racing from the building in flames. He died of his burns.

Money Appeal Goes Out In Rights Case

MERIDIAN, Miss. (AP)—Appeals for cash went out today as 16 men awaited arraignment in Mississippi's case of the three murdered civil rights workers.

The FBI said two other men would be arrested soon.

The two are Horace D. Barnette, 25, and James E. Jordan who used to live here but moved elsewhere after the killings. Their present whereabouts was an FBI secret.

A federal grand jury in Jackson indicted 18 white men on charges of conspiracy in the case. Those arrested here and at nearby Philadelphia Saturday were freed on bond.

Legal strategy being planned included a move to have each man tried separately. A federal source said the move would be opposed.

No arraignment date was set.

At least two fund-raising groups were bidding for defense donations.

One — with a goal of $1 million — said collection boxes would be placed at every business establishment in the state and every public official would be tapped for contribution.

The 16 arrested included Neshoba County Sheriff Lawrence Rainey, 41, and Chief Deputy Cecil Price, 26, both of Philadelphia.

Price was among 10 men the FBI said actually plotted the Ku Klux Klan conspiracy to intercept, "shoot and kill" the three men near Philadelphia, some 40 miles northwest of here, last June 21.

Barnette and Jordan also were among the 10 men listed. The FBI said both gave written eyewitness statements about the killings, which set off a massive FBI investigation.

The federal government has no authority to file murder charges in the case. There was no word on plans for state action. The Neshoba County grand jury, which would consider any state charges filed, meets next month.

The three dead men were found buried deep in a red clay dam on a farm near Philadelphia Aug. 4. An undisclosed informant directed the FBI to the location.

The victims were James Chaney, 21, a Meridian Negro, and two white New Yorkers, Michael Schwerner, 24, and Andrew Goodman, 20.

Lodge Says Viet Fight Can Be Won

NEW YORK (AP) — Henry Cabot Lodge strongly opposes a negotiated settlement for the war in Viet Nam and says the struggle against the Communists can be won.

But "in order to achieve victory," he said, "there must be within Viet Nam the same degree of civil-political success as there is military success."

He said the current military deadlock "is building the springboard for victory."

Lodge was U.S. ambassador to Saigon from August 1963 until last June. He was the Republican vice-presidential candidate in 1960, and is a former ambassador to the United Nations. He also was a senator from Massachusetts.

He gave his views in replies to questions submitted by The Associated Press.

"If Viet Nam falls to the Comunists," Lodge said, "it would shatter confidence all around the world in America's ability to carry out a vitally important commitment.

HELLO, PEARL!—Singing Star Carol Channing, sporting a huge white chamois hat, designed after the Capitol dome, has a big hello for Pearl Mesta, hostess at a pre-inaugural party last night in Washington, D.C. (APWirephoto)

QUITE A CRUSH

Perle Blasts Off Inaugural Week

WASHINGTON (AP) — There was pink champagne (domestic) and smoked tongue and black caviar and so many people the next vice president of the United States was almost backed into the kitchen.

But everyone had a nice word for everyone, and Hubert Humphrey, as always, had a few more at Perle Mesta's blast Sunday night which unofficially inaugurated the social swirl of inaugural week.

"How does it feel to be unemployed?" someone asked the vice resident-elect.

"Not unemployed," he grinned. "Unpaid." Humphrey went off the government payroll Dec. 29 when he resigned his Senate seat to advance his successor's seniority. His new paycheck of $43,000 a year doesn't start until he is sworn in Wednesday.

Clearly the top line of the evening came from Rudolph Nureyev, the great ballet dancer, who was asked what he thought of the Great Society. "I don't know," the Russian defector said, struggling to keep his elbows in and his champagne from spilling. "I haven't seen it yet."

Nureyev came with Dame Margot Fonteyn, the ballerina, who was radiant in something black. Like Carol Channing of "Hello Dolly," they will perform tonight at the inaugural gala. Last night, Miss Channing wore a big round white hat which was said to be modeled after the Capitol dome.

Mrs. Mesta, who is "social consultant" for this inaugural, gave the party in her 15-room penthouse apartment, which is full of expensive French furniture — the Marie Antoinette desk, someone whispered, is worth $25,000 — and the bathroom fixtures are sculpted out of gold leaf.

The cocktail party had been billed as a get-together for the kinfolk and friends of the Lyndon Johnsons. But among the 300 present, the kin were outnumbered by members of government, show people and society reporters.

Lynda Johnson was there, radiant in something white, escorted by former Marine Lt. David Lefeve. "Be sure," a lady from the White House whispered to a reporter, "you don't identify him as her fiance." Lynda's parents sent flowers and their regrets from Texas, where they personally were gathering the main body of kinfolk to fly to Washington.

Though at one time the crush of guests edged him perilously close to the open kitchen door, Humphrey maintained his good humor. "Nice and cozy, isn't it?" he said to one well-wisher.

To another: "Oh, yes, it's terribly exciting." To still another: "Wlel, I'd have to say campaigning is easier than this. We have 49 more parties this week alone." Mrs. Humphrey was radiant in something white.

As the party ended, Mrs. Mesta was asked if it had gone as expected. "Oh yes," she said. "Everybody I expected came and they all brought somebody else."

Johnson Brings Kinfolk Along For Festivities

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson shared the White House today with a delegation of his Texas uncles, aunts, cousins and sisters who are on hand for this week's inaugural festivities.

Johnson brought 27 of his kinfolk and close friends — including Texas Gov. and Mrs. John B. Connally—back to the White House last night after spending a long weekend on his LBJ ranch.

The President planned to spend most of the day working on his inaugural address, which he will deliver when he is sworn in Wednesday for a four-year term.

Most of the guests were quartered in the Executive Mansion, with relatives doubling up in second and third floor bedrooms and sleeping on extra cots. Six of the group stayed at Blair House, the presidential guest house located across Pennsylvania Avenue from the White House.

Over 24 million people are admitted to hospitals in the United States each year.

U.C. Chancellor Wants Rules Cut

BERKELEY (AP) — The new chancellor of the University of California's Berkeley campus says—like some students—that he would like to cut down administration rules.

Martin Meyerson, the 42-year-old UC dean promoted to acting chancelior Jan. 2, says he has requested a set of rules "that can go on one sheet of paper."

The action is an outgrowth of demonstrations by the Free Speech Movement (FSM), which seeks unlimited campus freedom to promote off-campus political and social causes.

FSM students contend they should have the same political freedoms on campus as non-student "civilians" have off campus.

They say state and federal laws — not the UC Berkeley administration — should govern alleged political violations of the law.

"The students have a moral position, that they wish to be given dignity as citizens," Meyerson said in a news conference yesterday.

"They are willing to relinquish any sanctuary in the university if they can have that dignity, and be dealt with by the courts," he said.

The new chancellor said that policing of the campus traditionally had been the university's duty, and that civil law enforcement agencies would be reluctant to take over the job.

Outside law enforcement on campus, Meyerson indicated, would be part of civilian rule.

"I think they (the students) need to consider their moral position and that they cannot, so to speak, have it both ways."

While Berkeley administrators are mulling proposals for new campus regulations, an interim rulebook has taken effect since the start of the new year .

The rules permit unrestricted political advocacy in a number of on-campus locations.

An FSM sit-in inside Sproul Hall, the administration building, ended in about 800 arrests Dec. 3. The arrested demonstrators are just beginning to enter please in Berkeley Municipal Court. None have been sentenced.

Suspect Named In Artist Killing

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Police have booked Ronnie LaMarr, 28-year-old San Francisco handyman, on suspicion of murder in the slaying of wealthy bachelor artist Oscar Mapes Robinson, 53.

Lamarr, arrested Sunday night, fits the description of a man seen with Robinson just before the artist was slain, police said.

Robinson was beaten to death with a Tahitian war club, in his downtown San Francisco hotel apartment. His body was found Friday morning, 10 hours after the apparent time of death.

The former British protectorate of Northern Rhodesia became a nation Oct. 24, 1964, with the romantic new name of Zambia.

MARIN'S POPULATION UP BY ONE QUARTER

Latest estimate of Marin County's population is 182,000.

That is the figure in a population estimate by the California Taxpayers Assn. It is 35,180 more than the 1960 census found—an increase of 24 per cent.

The association's figure has no official status.

The taxpayers association estimated population of California as of Jan. 1 at 18,607,000, up 18.4 per cent from the 15,717,204 in the federal census five years ago.

Assistance Offered Mental Health Cases

Marin County Health Department is offering a new service to residents of the county considering commitment of mentally ill people to hospitals.

The service is a "pre-petition" program designed to spare the mentally ill person and his family unnecessary legal commitment. It results from a study by Mrs. Herbert K. Baum of the Marin Assn. for Mental Health.

The program will provide information, psychiatric and casework service to the person seeking commitment of a mentally ill person, said Dr. Clyde Miller, director of the mental health service at 610 D Street, San Rafael.

Dr. Miller pointed out that legal commitment proceedings sometimes involve detention or hospitalization of the mentally ill person before a decision on commitment is made.

The mental health service will give consultation and then recommend the next step, which could be commitment, out-patient treatment, nursing home care, police protection or simply a period of "wait and see," said Dr. Miller.

Dr. Miller said that legal commitment proceedings might be avoided if the person in question can be persuaded to enter hospital voluntarily through the new service.

Fees for the consultation service will be adjusted to the family's ability to pay, he said.

Bomb Scare Wasn't Funny To Tam Valley Housewife

A Tamalpais Valley housewife Saturday received an anonymous telephone call saying there was a bomb in her yard.

Mrs. Ralph Garner Jr. at first shrugged it off as a joke, then changed her mind and called firemen. They raced to the home and told Mrs. Garner, her 17-year-old son Ralph and 11-year-old daughter Vicki to wait outside while they searched.

Two firemen and a Marin County sheriff's deputy checked through tthe house and yard, but found nothing.

Firemen said it was the first bomb scare of any kind in the fire district's history.

Mrs. Garner said the male caller spoke only the words, "There's a bomb in your yard," then hung up.

"At first you think it is a joke," she said, "but then this insidious fear creeps in."

The U.S. produces 98 per cent of the pecans.

Fleeing Driver Wrecks Havoc

OAKLAND (AP) — The last stop was jail Sunday night for a young driver who ran over fire hoses, fled 12 police vehicles, speeded 70 miles an hour through downtown Oakland and sideswiped "at least" 10 cars.

Police said the driver, Roi Sigler, 20, of Danville, Calif. was charged with assault with a deadly weapon—his car—and also speeding, hit-and-run and reckless driving.

He was taken to an Oakland hospital for treatment and later transferred to Oakland City Jail.

SWEET NOSE — It was a spring-like day in Salinas Saturday, and "Minky" the St. Bernard was enjoying the sun, when along came a photographer and put a phoney bee on her nose, just to show what the weather was like. The huge pooch couldn't help worrying though, even if the bee wasn't for real. (UPI Telephoto)

Unification Proposals On Agenda

Four school district unification proposals will be before the Marin County Committee on School District Organization when it meets at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the county schools curriculum laboratory at the Civic Center.

Reconsideration of unification of the 11 districts now making up Tamalpais High School District has ben added to the agenda for the meeting by County Supt. Virgil S. Hollis.

Already scheduled were discussions of unification of the Tamalpais area as two districts, review of unification of Dixie and San Rafael Elementary School Districts with San Rafael High School District, and review of resubmitting a proposal for unification of the districts making up Tomales High School District.

Over-all Tam district unification was turned down by the electorate last year. Unionization of the elementary districts in the Tomales High area — which would have been tantamount to unification—failed in a single district.

The committee is working under pressure of time with a one-year extension from last September, when its master plan for unification throughout Marin County was to have been submitted to the state.

Assassination Raises Tensions

BUKAVU, the Congo, (AP)—Violent reactions were feared today from followers of assassinated Premier Pierre Ngendandumwe of Burundi.

Reports reaching this eastern Congo border town said the premier was shot with an automatic rifle last Friday after coming from a hospital where his wife had just given birth to a son.

Ngendandumwe was named premier by King Mwambutsa IV only eight days before. He was a member of the Hutu tribe, many of whose leaders have been educated in Western universities. They oppose the Tutsi tribes, whose leaders are said to support the Red Chinese.

Co-op Market Due In Corte Madera

Plans for construction of a Co-op market north of the Corte Madera Shopping Center on Highway 101 were announced today.

Directors of Consumers Co-operative of Berkeley Inc. have completed negotiations for purchase of 3.69 acres between the highway and Tamal Vista Road, just outside the Corte Madera town limits, according to Martin Collor of Mill Valley, chairman of the Marin pre-center council.

Construction of an 18,000-square foot store is expected to begin next summer and be completed early next year. Collor said the project involves a million-dollar outlay.

The land, between the Department of Motor Vehicles office now under construction and the Edgewater Inn at 1815 Redwood Highway, is being purchased from Charlees Paganini of San Rafael.

He said Consumers Cooperative has an option to purchase the property for "about $300,000."

The store, to be one of the largest of nine member-owned Co-ops in the Bay Area, will include meeting rooms, a coffee bar, children's play area, managerial facilities and offices for the Co-op Credit Union, Collor said.

Acting as consultant to architect Hachiro Yuasa of Berkeley, designer of the building, will be Claude Stoller of Mill Valley.

Members of the building committee of the new market include Mrs. S. I. Hayakawa and Robert Pitts of Mill Valley, Mrs. Jack Kline of Fairfax and Melton Ferris of San Rafael.

DIVORCE

Willson, D-Huntington Park, and Pearce Young, D - Napa, said other sections of the country must share some of the blame.

Both blasted the neighboring state of Nevada for permitting what they called "quickie" marriages and divorces. Mexico was also criticized for the same reason.

Here are some of their proposals, prepared after a study by the Assembly Judicial Subcommittee on Domestic Relations.

1. Waiting periods of possibly two weeks before youngsters can marry.

2. Public school marriage and family living courses, financed by increasing the divorce filing fees.

3. Requesting Congress to initiate a constitutional amendment requiring standard divorce laws throughout the nation.

4. New laws permitting more information about divorce actions.

Car Wreck Suit Seeks $365,000

A $365,000 personal injury damage suit in a two-car collision on Highway 101 last Dec. 17 has been filed against two San Rafael men in Marin Superior Court.

Bruno A. and Doris Sargentini, Santa Clara, allege in the suit that Prentice Albert Town, 22, of 1364 Grand Avenue, driving a vehicle owned by Thomas John Mueller, co-defendant, was negligent in driving, resulting in the collision near Marinwood.

Sargentini, 50, director of nursing at Agnew State Hospital, suffered scrapes and bruises over much of his body, according to the report. His wife, 39, assistant director of nursing at the hospital, suffered two broken legs and severe scalp and chest injuries.

Town, a dishwasher in a San Rafael restaurant, suffered bruises.

Bruno is seeking $15,000 general damages, his wife, $150,000, and both are seeking $200,000 total in exemplary damages.

Collision Injures Father, Children

A San Francisco State College professor and his two children were slightly injured about 12:20 p.m. Saturday when their car collided with one driven by Army Sp. James Willie Sanders, 27, of Quarters 915, Fort Barry.

Sanders pulled away from a stop sign at the end of the Fort Barry Road into the path of a car driven by the professor, Kunitake M. Yamanaka, 40, of 538 Comstock Drive, Tiburon, headed south on the lateral, according to the California Highway Patrol.

Yamanaka was treated at Marin General Hospital for an injured left arm. His son, John, 4, and daughter, Barbara, 2, were treated for forehead cuts.

One More Files For School Post

William P. Everts Jr. of 246 Manor Drive, Mill Valley, an attorney, today filed a declaration with the county schools office to seek election to the Mill Valley school district board April 20.

Everts was the second to file for the Mill Valley board. Mrs. Joyce R. Gross, an incumbent, filed last week.

Decorated Cows

FAIRFIELD, Tex. (UPI) — Rancher Joe Richards has devised a new identification system for his cows, and he says "it works better than looking for the old roan with the white spot on her left hind leg." Richards used 11 branding irons to give each cow a symbol that shows her age, ownership and ancestry.

royal family led the nation's prayers for the veteran leader at a village church near Sandringham, the queen's country home.

At Westminster Abbey, across Parliament Square from the House of Commons, the Archbishop of York, Dr. Frederick Coggan, told a packed congregation: "Our thoughts and prayers turn to the room where Sir Winston Churchill lies in weakness.

"Again and again he has found the right words for the right occasion and rallied faltering nations in their hour of trial. We thank God for his leadership in times of peril and for a life richly gifted and lavishly spent."

Pope Paul VI sent a personal message "of deep personal concern" to Lady Churchill. It was delivered to her by the apostolic delegate in London, Archbishop Igino Cardinale.

GATE

ident was a "strong hint" in his State of the Union message that federal aid should be forthcoming for safeguarding the beauty of America and securing cities from urban sprawl.

The Golden Gate, said the telegram, is "one of America's legendary and symbolic beauty spots."

It went on: "This hitherto unspoiled area has significance not only for Marin County and California but for the whole United States, which remembers that here the westward migration of our people paused and found its goal.

"It seems to us that here, more than in most places, the nation's interest is paramount and we urge that early concern be shown by the federal government to help beleaguered Marin County to save these famous landmark hills for park and greenbelt use."

The committee noted that the State of California is planning to purchase portions of Forts Barry and Cronkhite declared surplus by the Army, to be kept as a state park. The 2,100 hillside and hilltop acres proposed for Marincello overlook these forts.

Whitney tied the Marincello proposal to the attempt by the board of supervisors to change the makeup of the planning commission. In a statement announcing the telegram, he said:

"Before acting on the (Marincello) department scheme, the Marin board is expected to make drastic changes in the membership of the planning commission."

Planned community zoning for Marincello was approved by 6-0 vote of the planning commission on Dec. 21, with Commissioner William F. Upton absent. This is to come before the board of supervisors tomorrow.

In approving the zoning, chairman Niels Schultz Jr. commented that "nothing is committed" regarding Frouge Corp.'s plans.

a.m. yesterday. The officers were parked in a patrol car near the Greenbrae Lanes in Larkspur. A taxicab pulled up behind the patrol car, honked and flashed its lights.

Newman and De Leon got out and were told by the cab driver, Bernard Christian of Fairfax, that a man was chasing the cab, threatening the woman passenger.

Kalua's auto pulled up. As De Leon walked toward it, the car sped directly at the officer, who jumped aside. The patrol car then chased Kalua's auto west on Sir Francis Drake.

They lost sight of it near Marin Catholic High School. But a short way beyond, they saw a cloud of dust. Driving to it they founud Kalua at the wheel of his wrecked car, unconscious. The officers called an ambulance.

As ambulance attendant Larry Hutchins, 4 Ward Street, Larkspur, walked toward the car, Kalua jumped out and leaped at him. The officers rushed up to help and the scuffle started.

Kalua was finally subdued and strapped to the ambulance guerney, but Hutchins had to hold him down on the way to the hospital, in spite of the restraining straps, officers reported.

Members of the California Highway Patrol and Corte Madera police department responded to a call for help to watch the prisoner.

Kalua has been arrested four other times in Marin, always for battery, since May, 1962. One case was dismissed and probation given in other cases. In November he was arrested by Sausalito police and given a 60-day suspended sentence and summary probation.

the effectiveness of U.S. missiles; and new methods of reporting the arrival of missiles on target up to and including the time of explosion.

The third system is a new short-range attack missile — SRAM — that can, if needed, be mounted on B52s or other bombers.

Johnson said this missile — "a vast improvement over existing systems" — would permit a bomber to attack a far larger number of targets and do so from beyond the range of their local defenses.

The President said he will ask more than $300 million to continue a program designed to extend the life and improve the effectiveness of the B52 bomber.

At the same time, he announced elimination of two squadrons of early model B52s, "least effective" of the eight jet intercontinental bombers.

Police Officers Soon Catches Car Culprit

Patrolman James R. Wiemeyer of Mill Valley police was en route to make out a stolen vehicle report at 7:50 p.m. Friday when he saw the stolen car being driven into the Hancock Service station at 619 East Blithedale Avenue.

Wiemeyer tried to stop the car, he said. The driver, a 15-year-old Mill Valley boy, jumped out and fled into the hills. Later, Patrolman Robert J. Dyche picked up the youth at Alta Vista and East Manor Drive and, on questioning, he admitted stealing the car. He was cited for "auto theft-joy riding" and released to his father.

The car, a 1956 Chevrolet, was reported stolen from Purity Store at Camino Alto and East Blithedale Avenue by owner Mrs. Francis D. Potts of 550 Marin Avenue, Mill Valley.

Wrong-Way Driving Results In Smashup

A 42-year-old Strawberry man suffered a small cut on the nose when his car hit a parked station wagon on Drake Avenue near the entrance to Marin City at 8:30 p.m. Saturday.

The California Highway Patrol said Herman A. Kemp of 100 Reed Boulevard, Apt. 14, was driving on the wrong side of the road when his car struck a station wagon owned by Luther Norwood of 271 Drake Avenue.

Suspect In Holdup Is Released

A suspect in the reported hold-up-attempt of a Sleepy Hollow couple last Monday submitted voluntarily to questioning and a lie detector test by Marin County sheriff's officers Saturday.

He was released following interrogation, however, and no charge had been filed by noon today.

Inspector Bowen Bridges said the man was one whom the victim, Rudolph Eichenbaum, 106 Deer Hollow Road, thought he recognized after three masked men burst into his home.

Eichenbaum was pistol-whipped on the head but was not seriously injured. His wife and a handyman, Virgil Wilson of San Francisco, were also present.

three parcels, and covers land not regulated by the subdivision ordinance.

Attorney Charles F. Pierce, representing West Marin property owners, said it "effects a hardship on all people in West Marin."

Edward Beattie, a Tamalpais Valley civil engineer, said the ordinance sets standards "that are not consistent with the desires of the people."

The protest came as the commission was reviewing the ordinance with a view toward recommending revisions.

Chairman Niels Schultz Jr. said the ordinance applies countywide and could not be drawn so that it applied everywhere but West Marin.

Commissioner William F. Upton said need for it arose because urban areas were being divided "willy-nilly" with no roads and no utilities. These are the areas it should be aimed at, he said.

The ordinance was passed by supervisors after Mayor Robert D. Carrow of Novato complained that substandard development on unincorporated land contiguous to Novato had a detrimental effect on the city.

On the military front, two U.S. Army officer advisers were believed missing in action today in the northwestern province of Binh Tuy, 75, miles northeast of Saigon.

A U.S. military spokesman said the two American were accompanying two companies of Vietnamese forces Saturday when a clash broke out with a Communist Viet Cong battalion.

In the Saigon area, a U.S. Air Force enlisted man was fatally stabbed Saturday night by a Vietnamese in civilian dress outside a bar near the entrance to the Tan Son Nhut Air Base, an American spokesman said today.

The airman was stabbed in the abdomen. His name was withheld pending notification of next of kin.

KING

would sign a warrant for Robinson's arrest.

King praised the Selma police for their "quick action" in breaking up the incident.

The peaceful voter registration drive was in sharp contrast to previous integration attempts in this tightly segregated city. Only one arrest was reported, about three blocks from the courthouse where police picked up a member of the American Nazi party in a blackface minstrel outfit.

King and his group walked to the courthouse in groups of 5 and 6 persons, about 8 to 10 feet apart, in accordance to a friendly but firm request from Selma's public safety director to avoid a full-scale parade. The official, Wilson Baker, stopped King shortly after the integration leader emerged from a church to lead his followers to the Dallas county courthouse. Baker told King to march in small groups, and King complied.

Using the Alabama voter test only about 30 or 50 persons could be registered a day. Under a prearranged plan, the applicants were assigned numbers and told to wait their turn.

In the line of integrationists strung out near the courthouse, were several well - dressed white persons. They were identified as members of the Northern Presbyterian Church who had come to Selma to take part in the drive—King's first since he won the Nobel Peace Prize in November.

The man arrested in a cafe near the courthouse, identified himself as Robert Lloyd of Richmond, Va. He was arrested as a "suspicious person."

While King stood on the courthouse steps, he was approached by George Lincoln Rockwell, leader of the American Nazi party. Rockwell requested permission to address a Negro rally tonight.

"You can have 15 minutes," King replied.

Then Jim Robbins, a member of the white extremist National States Rights party, also approached King and requested equal time. King said his party could also address the integration rally.

Before proceeding to the courthouse, King addressed a rally in a Negro church.

"We are tired of being at the bottom of the economic ladder and smothering in an airtight cage of poverty," he said.

Dog Owner Faces Complaint After Chase Of Deer

A rash of dogs chasing deer resulted today in filing of a misdemeanor complaint in Marin Municipal Court against a Mill Valley dog owner, Deputy Dist. Atty. Gary Thomas reported.

Thomas said the charge of unlawfully permitting of a dog to run deer during closed season resulted from a Dec. 31 incident in which a black poodle dog owned by Mrs. Dale H. McGill, 444 Eldridge Avenue, pursued a deer at Tamalpais Game Refuge.

A. F. Giddings, fish and game warden, said the dog was observed by a Marin Municipal Water District employee and was impounded. He said as many as 35 dogs have been running deer recently on the refuge and other places, including Taylor State Park.

Fairfax police arrested Donald McIntyre, 33, of 1615B Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Fairfax, yesterday and booked him at county jail. FLORIN G. LEE Florin G. Lee, 79, of San Diego County, who came to Greenbrae a week ago to visit his sister, died at her home Saturday after a short illness.

Lee owned an avocado orchard at Vista in San Diego County. He came to Greenbrae to visit Mrs. Jessica L. Miller at 69 Greenbrae Boardwalk, and was taken ill.

He was a native of Iowa but had resided in California since four years old.

Private funeral was held today at Harry M. Williams Mortuary in San Rafael. Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery, Riverside.

He leaves two sisters, Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Alice Brown of Corte Madera.

DAVID BLISSETT

David M. Blissett, 7, of 631 Vendola Drive, Santa Venetia, died in his home last night, apparently after an attack due to a kidney tumor. A county fire department resuscitator was rushed to the boy's home, but he was dead when it arrived.

Asst. Coroner William C. Bradley said death was apparently due to natural causes but ordered an autopsy.

David was a pupil in the second grade at John MacPhail School. He had been ill with a kidney ailment called Wilm's tumor since March, said Bradley.

He is survived by his father, Audrey; his mother, Elizabeth; four brothers, Glenn, Scott, Mark and John, and two sisters, Pamela Jean and Mary Frances.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael.

KILLER CRASH CLUES SOUGHT

Air Force personnel search the wreckage yesterday of the KC-135 Boeing jet strato-tanker that crashed into a quiet Wichita, Kans., neighborhood Saturday, killing 29 persons. Crater from plane's impact is at right; an engine sticks up at left. The Pentagon has ordered a blue-ribbon team of experts to try to find out the cause of the tragedy, which killed 7 Air Force crewmen and 22 civilians. (UPI Telephoto)

Wrecked Auto Found Stripped

A Fairfax woman complained to San Rafael police early yesterday that her husband's convertible had been stripped in less than a day after he wrecked it on San Rafael Hill and went to jail.

The incident was one of several car-clouts reported by San Rafael police this weekend.

Judith Porter of 212 Hillside Drive, Fairfax, said windows were broken, the top slashed and a wheel and tire taken from her husband's car. Police said Porter had been jailed on several traffic warrants after he wrecked the car on Robert Dollar Drive Saturday.

Stephen L. Brigham of Berkeley told police some $300 worth of parts were taken from his 1928 Model A Ford, which he had left parked in a driveway at 238 Union Street.

Stolen batteries were reported by Patricia H. Bruck of 27 Maranita Avenue and Douglas J. Cowan of 101 Highland Avenue.

Cowan said an unconnected telephone was stolen from a locked cabinet in his carport at the same time.

Robert W. Sauter of 35 Cullo-den Park said his auto's antenna was snapped off Friday night. Donald Lougerbough of 418 Belle Avenue reported that someone stole three shirts and a pair of slacks from his car the same evening.

Yesterday, Robert Fragani of 1108 Mission Avenue told officers the tail lights had been taken from his car between midnight and 8 a.m.

Theft of a rear-view mirror from a motorcycle was reported Saturday by Michael J. Pereira of 96 Cypress Drive, San Rafael, who said the theft took place between 4 and 7:10 p.m.

Husband Upset By Her 'Retreat' With Their Cash

A 52-year-old San Rafael woman apparently made a planned "getaway" from her husband Dec. 28, and the husband has turned to police for help in finding her.

Missing is Helen M. Tupas of 519 Jewell Street, who told her husband, Peter L. Tupas, that she was "going on a retreat" as he left for work that day.

That afternoon, Tupas told police, he learned that his wife had drawn $900 from their joint bank account. He drove home to ask her about it, but she was gone.

Tupas said he learned she had gone to San Francisco International Airport with several pieces of luggage.

He and his wife had no quarrel, Tupas said.

Concerto Performance Stunning

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

A stunning performance yesterday afternoon of Beethoven's C Minor Piano Concerto No. 3 by Istvan Nadas and the San Rafael Chamber Orchestra under Hugo Rinaldi was the climax of a concert marked by many high points.

From an audience of between 600 and 700, the concerto drew acclaim seldom equaled at any concert we have heard in Angelico Hall.

Nadas' playing was a marvel of crystalline clarity, both in the fiery and powerful brilliance of the virtuoso portions of the allegro con brio and rondo and in the exquisitely lyrical largo.

Great rapport was evident between the artist and Rinaldi, who drew such fine response from the orchestra that this reading of the concerto made most others we have heard seem pallid.

Memorable throughout the concert was the violin playing of the orchestra's new concertmistress, Frances Wiener Shorr. This was heard to best advantage in Vivaldi's Concerto in A Minor for two violins and strings, one of this composer's noblest works.

Her artistry was ably complemented by the second violin of Francesco Mazzi. The larghetto, a true duet, was especially beautiful.

From the standpoint of fresh appeal, the Sinfonia Concertante for solo instruments and orchestra by the Czechoslovakian Bohislav Martinu of the contemporary era was the most interestingg.

Outstanding in this were the soloists: Violinist Shorr, cellist Jean Maguire, oboist Jean Stevens, bassoonist James Schultz and pianist Faith France.

A very satisfying performance of Haydn's Symphony No. 49 (La Passione) completed the program.

Seriously disturbing was noise created by some young people upstairs. Perhaps monitoring could be provided to guard against this in the future.

The San Rafael Recreation and Park Commission is to be commended for sponsoring entertainment of this high caliber.

Bolinas-Stinson Trustees Favor Unified District

Trustees of the Bolinas- Stinson Union School District agreed yesterday to go on record favoring the principle of a West Marin unified school district.

Mrs. Alyce Thompson, clerk, reported the board favors two unified district created within the Tamalpais high school district area only if Bolinas and Stinson are in the northern district.

"We would not favor a larger unification plan because of excess centralization," she said.

"Our real reason is that some day we want a high school near us. We feel the needs of our children will be better taken care of with smaller unification, not with a great big one."

Mrs. Thompson said some trustees plan to attend a Marin County committee on school district organization meeting at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Civic Center.

Trustees met yesterday because the board had overlooked approving Bolinas school addition plans. They approved preliminary plans for two new classrooms with boys and girls rest rooms.

Russia has given the new name of Tselinograd, or Virgin Land City, to a community of 100,000 in the northeastern Kazakh Soviet Socialist Republic, the National Geographic says. The city's previous name, Akmolinsk, discouraged settlers. It meant White Tomb.

Hotel Tax Issue Again On Council Agenda

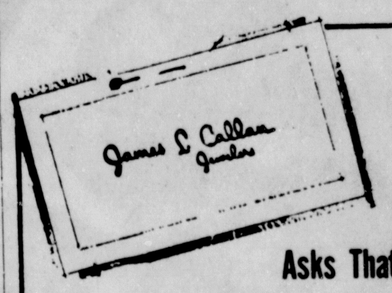

The Corte Madera Town Council will hold a continued public hearing tonight on the proposed hotel room tax. The meeting will start at 7:30 p.m. at the Town Hall, but the hearing is set for 8 p.m.

Town Atty. Sherrod S. Davis will report on requested amendments to the community antenna television ordinance and on a cable franchise. The council may call for bids on bonds for construction of the public safety building.

HERE IT IS AGAIN—A WINNER

This photo by Independent-Journal photographer Jim Kean today was announced as December winner of the $100 top prize in the Associated Press monthly contest for "pictures best interpreting a cliche situation in non-cliche terms." It appeared on Page 1 of the I-J on Dec. 7 and was transmitted nationwide by AP Wirephotos. It shows Dianna Lynn Sapia, 8, and her brother Brian, 3, children of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sapia of Kent Woodlands, in the tub after they had been lost for hours—and had been found under the porch by Little One, one of Sheriff's Sgt. Michael McLean's bloodhounds. Commented F. A. Resch, AP Newsphotos executive editor: "Kean made a captivating study of the youngsters in the tub for a needed cleanup, with the dog extending friendly paws across the tub's rim."

Comedian 'Digs' Houseboat Living Along Sausalito's Waterfront

BY BRUCE COLEMAN

"I dig it," said Godfrey Cambridge the comic. "It's a wild experience.

"My bedroom is upstairs in the penthouse, but every now and then I come down here (to the main floor) and sleep so I can look out the port hole."

Cambridge, now playing at San Francisco's Hungry I, was explaining the houseboat on which he lives near Sausalito.

"I've been so busy here," he said. "I cut a new album, 'The Cotton Pickin' Days Is Over.' I had to write. I look at the mountains and the birds flying and the tide on the bay. The boat is gently rocking. That's peace. That's what you work hard for.

GODFREY CAMBRIDGE
On the boat, peace

"You come in at 3 in the morning and get on that deck and stand there. Everything comes back into focus . . . You feel like you're quite alone. If something's bugging you, it's good. The boat is soundproof. The Hungry I makes me feel very creative and this boat, too, makes for creativity."

Singer Jon Hendrix is on an adjoining houseboat and has been writing music for Thelonius Monk. "Monk is the kind of guy who doesn't talk," said Cambridge. "You ask him something and he says 'Uh, uh.' Monk came and stayed here and talked for two days."

Other entertainers who have stayed on the boats include comedian Bill Cosby, singer Carol Sloane, and saxophone player Cannonball Abberley.

Cambridge, Hendricks and John Handy III and his 10-piece Freedom Band will perform at a benefit for College of Marin friends of the student non-violent coordinating committee at 8 p.m. Sunday, at the college gymasium.

Proceeds benefit work of the committee which sponsors voter registration work, freedom schools and other civil rights activities among Negroes in the South.

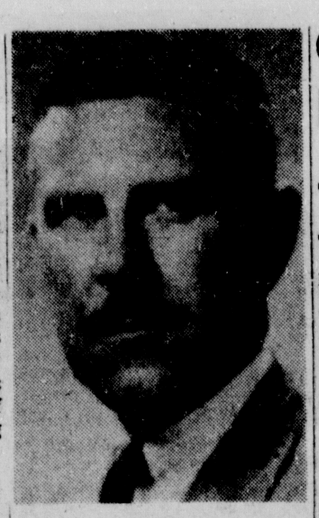

Explaining how he got started as a comedian, Cambridge, who is also a dramatic actor and played "Gitlow" on broadway in Ossie Davie's "Purlie Victorious," said: "When I was a kid I was always shy. At parties I stood in the corner looking at my shoes. Then, at my Aunt's house I started to come out of my shell. I started making faces."

In 1956 Cambridge was a national laugh champion, he said. "I was a claquer—a professional laughter on TV. I got $10 a show and didn't have to do matinees.

"That laughing is hard work," he added. "I would get such headaches and I would get so tired."

Cambridge does numbers such as stories on housing, a number called "Cary Grant is the white Godfrey Cambridge" and another called "the rent-a- Negro plan" in which he suggests renting suitable Negroes for white liberal parties. He uses all topics, he said, and after a visit to a Mill Valley grocery wrote a piece on "Interracial shopping at the Safeway in Mill Valley.

The languid-eyed comic, who is a bit round at the waist, said: "I'm working on a diet. I'm always on a diet. I have given all my cheese, baloney and hot dogs I had in the refrigerator to Carol Sloane so there are no fattening foods in the house. But, you'd be surprised how hard it is to give food away. They say, 'What? Do you think I'm unable to provide for myself."

CHRISTIAN A. GRONBECK
Again heads campaign

Easter Seal Chairman Reappointed

Dr. Christian A. Gronbeck Jr., Kentfield physician, has been appointed Easter Seal campaign chairman for the second consecutive year, it was announced today by Paul A. Steinman, Easter Seal Society president.

At the same time, Steinman and Gronbeck announced the goal for the drive this year would be $26,000, including Easter Seal returns, special events and special gifts. The annual operating budget for the society is $35,000.

"The seal this year is the most attractive I've seen so far," said Gronbeck. The seals will be mailed to 51,000 Marinites on March 10. The campaign will extend through Easter Week.

Car Wrecked By 3 Boys' Joy Ride

Two Belvedere youths and a Tiburon friend were cited to juvenile authorities Saturday after they went for a joy-ride in one's father's car, then wrecked it.

Belvedere police said the incident came to light when the California Highway Patrol found the wrecked car, owned by L. B. Fleischman of 9 West Shore Road, at 8:15 a.m. Saturday in the 4400 block of Paradise Drive, Tiburon.

The car had crashed into a fire hydrant and sheared it off.

Cited were two 14-year-old Belvedere youths and a 15-year-old from Tiburon. Police said they admitted taking the car to go to a party.

Car Thief Fools Watching Woman

When Winifred R. Menges of 18 Greenfield Avenue, San Rafael, saw someone drive away in her husband's car at 4:50 a.m. Saturday, she thought it was he or an employee of his firm, Marin Building Maintenance Co.

She was wrong.

Her husband, Edward L. Menges, later told police the two-door Chevrolet, with the firm's name on the side, had been stolen.

Police also received a report of a stolen motorcycle from Theodore D. Hiatt of 22 Oak Springs Drive, San Anselmo, who said he left it on a parking lot behind 321 Francisco Boulevard at 9 a.m. Thursday, and it was missing 24 hours later.

Showdown Slated On Mass Resignations

Marin County supervisors are slated to receive responses, pro and con, tomorrow to their request that members of three county commissions resign.

The board has scheduled a session on the matter at 11 a.m.

Tomorrow is the deadline set by the board for resignations of members of the county planning, parks and recreation, and personnel commissions.

Niels Schultz Jr., chairman of the planning commission, and Julius H. Selinger, chairman of the personnel commission, are scheduled to protest the demand.

The board also is scheduled to receive 22 petitions from West Marin, bearing 513 signatures, asking the board to rescind its action.

Last Tuesday, supervisors were asked to consider what commissioners might be replaced and who might replace them.

The board also will have before it a letter from the Homestead Valley Improvement Club backing its action and a letter from the leagues of women voters of southern and central Marin suggesting that the board set criteria for selecting commissioners.

County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney is to report on the legality of having a commissioner's term run concurrently with the supervisors, a suggestion made by Supervisor Thomas T. Storer.

The board also is scheduled to meet with the county offices committee of the 1964 Marin County Grand Jury on administration of the data processing bureau at 10:30 a.m.

The committee recommended that the bureau be under control of the county administrator rather than the auditor-controller.

Marinites Exhibit In Artists' Festival

Five Marin County artists will exhibit paintings in the Oakland-Piedmont Arts Festival tomorrow through Sunday at the Kaiser Center gallery, Oakdale.

Works by Ada Garfinkel, Doris Morrison, Kenneth Potter, Henry Rasmussen and Gwen Stone, members of the East Bay Artists Assn., will be shown with paintings of 32 other association members.

During the Civil War, the U.S. government adopted a three per cent tax on incomes between $600 and $10,000, which was abandoned in 1872.

Discipline On Agenda For Ross Trustees

Discipline, reading, science fair and review of the district's sabbatical leave policy are among matters scheduled for discussion by the Ross School District board at a meeting at 7:30 p.m. today in Ross School.

Other business will include a request by the California Teachers Assn. chapter for recognition as bargaining agent for the teachers.

Prison Problems, Growth Reviewed

SACRAMENTO (AP)—California's corrections director today reported "important gains" during the past year, but warned that crowding and inmate idleness are still serious problems in state prisons.

Director Walter Dunbar said there were 26,380 inmates in the 13 major institutions of the Department of Corrections at the end of 1964.

"Overcrowding and inmate idleness are still serious problems, and we are making progress to alleviate these conditions," he told a meeting of department employes.

"We have learned from experience that the old concept of warehousing prisoners in idleness does not change attitudes nor provide job skills for gainful employment," he said.

Dunbar said San Quentin, designed for 2,700 inmates, now houses 4,200. Folsom, with a capacity of 1,700 houses 2,600 prisoners.

Gains during the year were listed as strengthened parole programs and improvement in control and treatment of narcotics addicts.

There was a sharp increase over the year in the number of people on parole, from 12,080 at the end of 1963 to 13,260 at the end of 1964. More than 7,700 were released from prison to parole during the year.

Dunbar said improved parole programs permit consideration of earlier releases for inmates who have shown good prospects for successful readjustment on the outside.

Dredge Lost On Moonlit Wanderings

Strawberry residents were awakened last night by the chuffing of a tug drawing a dredge along their tidelands.

Fearing further dredging of the land, which is being purchased by Marin County-Tiburon and the Strawberry recreation district, residents kept a close watch as the tug meandered back and forth, lost in the moonlit offshore waters, pulling the giant dredge to offshore of the Trestle Glen area.

This morning the dredge found its temporary home at the Cove apartment complex at the base of the Tiburon peninsula. It is being used to cut further channels for the dredge-fill development for addition of 12 buildings with 94 apartments there.

The dredge began its journey yesterday from H. F. Lauritzen Inc., contracting headquarters in Antioch.

Bridegroom Drops Dead At Own Wedding Rites

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Some 300 relatives and friends filled St. Michael's Catholic church to see Bruce Stanton and Sharon Cosgrove, both 22, joined in marriage.

Eight attendants were gathered at the altar as Miss Cosgrove slowly walked down the aisle Saturday. She smiled at Stanton and placed her hand in his arm. They moved together toward the altar. The marriage ceremony started.

Suddenly, Stanton collapsed and his head struck the floor. An ambulance took the unconscious young man to a hospital.

Stanton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stanton of West St. Paul, and Miss Cosgrove were at his bedside when he died Saturday night without regaining consciousness.

Marin County Dogs Win At Cow Palace

Six Marin County dogs won awards in the 55th annual Golden Gate Kennel Club Dog Show at the San Francisco Cow Palace Saturday and yesterday.

Winners included Trigger Whizz of Ben Hame, a boxer, which completed its championship owned by Terry Hasek of Corte Madera; Champion Krespie de la Thudinie, a Bouvier de Flandres, owned by Marion C. Hubbard of Ross; Champion Picnic Valley Mystic Lady, a pug, owned by Picnic Valley Kennels of Novato; Armac Duke of Hammesley, an Australian terrier, owned by Margaret Gloe of Mill Valley; Palfra's Eric Reh, a vizslas, owned by Frances S. Putnam of Novato, and Del Akers El Captain, a long-haired dachshund, owned by B. K. Simpson of Novato.

The sailors aboard the Pinta, Nina and Santa Maria had one thing in common—superstition.

Dr. Nardiello Of TV Boxing Fame Is Dead At 76

NEW YORK (AP) — Dr. Vincent Nardiello, former physician for the New York State Athletic Commission, died yesterday at Veterans Hospital after a long illness. He was 76.

Nardiello died several hours before the Boxing Writers Association 39th annual dinner. At the 1953 dinner he received the association's James J. Walker memorial award for long and meritorious service to boxing.

He became a poular figure in boxing during the years that fights were televised from Madison Square Garden. He served as the doctor for the bouts. He resigned his state post in 1957 because of ill health. He also gave up his private practice at the same time.

Council Cancels Closed Meeting

No meeting was held by the Sausalito City Council with City Mgr. Charles A. Brown to discuss the manager's duties.

Mayor Jan Paul Dyk had called the meeting, announcing it would be closed to the public. He called it off late Friday, saying: "We have decided not to hold the meeting. We believe it has nothing to do with the Brown Act, but we do not wish to stir up a controversy or any static since the matter which was to be discussed is not that important."

The Ralph M. Brown Act prohibits closed meetings of governmental bodies.

Peyote Charge Lodged Against Marin Visitors

Highway Patrol Officer Angelo J. Corvino pulled behind a parked car on Highway 101 about 6 p. m. yesterday and found two men inside engrossed in examining a small box of pills.

He had to knock on the window with his flashlight to gain their attention. One man then opened the opposite door and dropped the box onto the roadway.

The two, Henry H. Guernsey III, 26, unemployed, of South San Francisco, and Arnold Kravitz, 26, a seaman from San Francisco, were questioned and one admitted some of the capsules contained peyote, Corvino reported.

Both men were booked at the Marin County Jail on charges of possession of a narcotic. They were released on $1,650 bail each, to appear in Marin Municipal court Wednesday.

Corvino took as evidence 75 pills believed to contain peyote, along with five long yellow capsules and 12 small round ones containing unknown substances.

Novato High School Vote Heavy Despite Short Ballot

More than 850 Novato High school students voted in an election Friday to choose spring semester student body officers, despite the fact there was no contest for president.

John Michael Gragg, faculty adviser, reported today the 60 per cent turnout was the largest for any student election in Novato High's history. There was a reason: for the firsts time, the "poll tax" requirement of a student body card was eliminated.

Ron Tieche, son of Mrs. Joseph Applebaum of 848 Sutro Avenue, was elected to his second semester term as student president without opposition.

Number of votes cast for each candidate was kept secret, this provision of the high school not having been changed when the "poll tax" was abolished.

Paul Kaehler won over Dennis Baldwin for vice president. April Painter, unopposed, was elected secretary.

Nanette Larson was elected commissioner of spirit over Patty Hurst. Cyndi Hiatt won commisioner of interschool and public relations over Kathy McDonough. Randy Stoops was elected commissioner of justice over Marilyn Wheeler; Sharon Ell, commissioner of finance over Theo Oberle; Jim Larson, commissioner of athletics and awards, unopposed; Karl Johansson, commissioner of internal affairs over Linida Lowe and Pam Melgarjo; Maureen Giari, commissioner of student activities over Barbara Jones, Linda Rediske and Rita Taylor.

San Jose Trustees To Review Building

San Jose School District trustees will review the district's building program when they meet at 8 p.m. today in the library of Meadom Park School.

The board will adjourn at approximately 8:30 p.m. for a special meeting of the new Novato Unified School District Board.

Belvedere Planning Commission To Meet

The Belvedere planning commission will meet at 8 p.m. today at the Community Hall to continue its study of a more strict subdivision ordinance and slope policy.

Also under consideration will be a request by David B. Sheldon for a variance which would allow less than the required setbacks on all four sides of a house to be built at 2 Bellevue Avenue.

Marin Attorney To Aid Mississippi Vote Fight

Alvin H. Goldstein Jr., Sleepy Hollow attorney, will fly to Mississippi tonight to get legal support for the challenge against the Mississippi congressional delegation.

Goldstein, who headed President Johnson's campaign in Marin, is a member of the advance group of half a dozen Bay Area lawyers who will fly to Jackson tonight. They will be assigned to the Fourth Congressional District, which includes Neshobe County, Philadelphia and Meridian.

"Our purpose is to take depositions from people who have been disenfranchised," said Goldstein. "We'll be gone about a week. Then the next group will probably replace us."

About 60 Bay Area attorneys have signed up to participate in the project to get legal support for the challenge to the seating of Mississippi's congressional delegation.

Goldstein said he has appealed to the Marin County Bar Assn. for more members to join the Mississippi project.

Tormenting Rectal Itch Stopped In Minutes

Science Finds New Healing Substance That Promptly Stops Itching and Pain of Piles

New York, N. Y. (Special) — One of the most common afflictions is a condition known as "itching piles." It is most embarrassing for the victim during the day and especially aggravating at night.

No matter what you've used without results — here's good news. For the first time, science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to promptly stop the burning itch and pain. It actually shrinks hemorrhoids — without surgery. Medical science has proved this substance produces a remarkably effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection.

In one hemorrhoid case after another "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations. This improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of months! Among these sufferers were a wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' duration.

The secret is this new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — discovery of a world-famous research institution. This substance is now obtainable in ointment or suppository form known as Preparation H®. Ask for Preparation H Suppositories (convenient to carry if away from home) or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Available at all drug counters.

Father McAlister's Loss Felt By Entire Community

"Father Mac" was in his way such a warmly human person that it never seemed appropriate to refer to him as The Right Reverend Monsignor Daniel J. McAlister.

To know him was to respect him, admire him and have great affection for him.

His passing at a mere 60 leaves all of us in Marin poorer.

Although he was racked by pain and suffering from the cancer with which he was afflicted for several years, we can be sure that Monsignor McAlister did not leave this world sadly.

He had every reason to be proud and happy about the success of his beloved annual "Unity Octave."

If he had any regrets they could only be that his departure necessitated the cancellation of the opening event on this year's Unity Octave schedule. A dialogue on "Reformation to Renewal" with Dr. Frank Norris of St. Patrick's Seminary and Dr. Robert McAfee Brown of Stanford University as speakers was to have been held last night in St. Raphael's auditorium. Instead, the rosary was recited over Father Mac's earthly remains at the church.

Since the Protestant Reformation nearly five centuries ago, Christians have been separated. In Marin in the past three years, as an aftermath of the ecumenical efforts of the late Pope John XXIII, Monsignor McAlister was the acknowledged leader in a most effective effort to heal the 500-year breach.

On the night of his death, the voters' assembly of Trinity Lutheran Church of San Rafael (the "church of the Reformation") voted to authorize their pastor to express that protestant congregation's regret at the Roman Catholic leader's passing.

On the same day, Rev. Bliss Bellinger, pastor of Faith Lutheran Church of San Rafael, wrote of Monsignor McAlister:

"We grieve the loss of a brother.

"Three years ago we were unaware we were brothers, but by his creative, ecumenical and Christ-like spirit, he led the Christian community of Marin to a new understanding of brotherly love . . ."

This week, as the result of Monsignor McAlister's initial efforts, First Presbyterian, St. Paul's Episcopal, First Methodist and Trinity Lutheran churches each will have special worship services to pray for unity as contributions to the Unity Octave.

Tomorrow night Roman Catholic Archbishop Joseph T. McGucken will speak at the annual dinner of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, another feature of Unity Octave.

All this is perhaps Monsignor McAlister's most significant and fitting memorial.

Around the neighborhood of Fifth Avenue and B Street in San Rafael, where the Independent-Journal is neighbor to St. Raphael's Church, Father Mac's departure leaves a sense of great personal loss.

These Low, Low, Low Chairs

Someone, somewhere sold the American people on the strange, uncomfortable idea that the way to sit up is half stretched out about a foot from the floor. Chairs are getting lower and flatter by the year.

If the present trend continues, we can foresee the day when guests will have to be told which rugs are the chairs. However, we are told that a revolt is developing and that people are now asking for chairs with straight backs that look like chairs instead of beds. Too hard to get out of those low, low things, they complain.

Come the revolution . . .

Assemblymen Not Eager To Help State Senators Keep Top Posts

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The real, down-to-earth battle over State Senate reapportionment started this week when an open break between the Senate and Assembly was made known to the public.

IT HAS BEEN no secret around Sacramento that the battle between the Senate and Assembly would erupt sometime, as apparently the Assembly may be inclined to favor reapportionment of the Senate on a population basis, while the Senate itself favors retaining the present area reapportionment in some form or other, perhaps modified to meet the requirements of the U.S. Supreme Court.

In any event, the Assembly, through its speaker, Jesse M. Unruh (D-Inglewood), made it known to Hugh M. Burns (D-Fresno), president pro-tem of the Senate, that the lower house is not rushing two resolutions calling on Congress to expedite a national constitutional amendment permitting states to apportion one legislative house on a basis other than population.

THE SENATE, through Burns, had asked that the resolutions be expedited so they could be rushed to Congress.

Lack of cooperation on the part of the Assembly indicates that body later is going to look with something of a jaundiced eye on whatever reapportionment bills it gets from the Senate, when and if such a bill is forthcoming.

The Senate has not yet made any apparent progress in drawing up any reapportionment bill at all. Each day the matter is delayed puts reapportionment a day closer to having the job done by a master of the federal court rather than the California Legislature itself.

Some senators, headed by Sen. Stephen Teale (D-Tuolumne), look on the interference of a special master as dangerous to the interests of the state. Teale believes the Legislature should proceed in a dignified manner and get the matter out of the way, and proceed with the state's other business.

HOWEVER, IT IS not likely that the Legislature will attack the problem with a great deal of dignity.

Too many, approximately 15 northern senators, are being affected by proposals to transfer their districts to the populous areas of Southern California.

This knowledge alone makes some of the 31 Los Angeles assemblymen see senatorial districts hanging like ripe plums on a tree. Scarcely an assemblyman is in office who would not trade his lower house seat for one of the plush blue chairs on the other side of the Capitol.

This is the primary reason why the Assembly is not anxious to expedite action on the requests to Congress. The matter boils down to personal issues instead of the good of the people as a whole.

THE PROSPECTS are for a lengthy legislative session this year to settle the reapportionment matter, as well as take care of the other legislative business of California.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Fairfax Editorial Is Given Praise

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your editorial of Jan. 8, blasting the Fairfax City Council for its "closed door session," deserves the highest praise. There have been many similar violations of the Brown Act by local administrative units in Marin, and you have appropriately (and in the public welfare) routinely objected. Perhaps stronger pressure is needed.

Although the area and issue are relatively small, the principle encompasses the entire democratic process. If we truly believe in democracy, objections must be made at the most trivial breach, since, if the "outposts" are overrun — the danger of compromise or defeat becomes more likely.

When the founding fathers set the foundation for public participation in political decisions, they knew (and how prescient they were) that the system would be messy, difficult, inefficient, and unpopular with the elite. They accepted (and rightly so) these disadvantages, to achieve freedom from tyranny.

Of the four basic Elements of Democracy, the closed Council meeting violates at least three. The interested constituency is denied: (1) the education of participating in open controversy, (2) the protection against abuse of power, a threat that must constantly be fought and can never be totally defeated, and (3) the "Civil Rights" of having a meaningful role in guiding public policy. Even the fourth element, a solid economic substructure which lends weight to the opinions of a free citizenry, is also involved. The transfer of power to a city administrator is of serious concern to those whose livelihood depends on administrative predictability.

The Brown Act safeguards all classes and all parties. You are dead right in denouncing its corruption in local government!

Disagreement On Editorial

Editor, Independent-Journal:

With much relief I read Mrs. Brewer's common-sense, civic-minded letter published in your issue of Jan. 9. When public officials serve their communities during their off-hours, and do so "for free" except for the satisfaction they find in achieving a measure of public recognition, they deserve better than often they receive.

I was in less agreement with your critical editorial of Jan. 8 taking to task the members of the council of the city of Fairfax; but not wholly in disagreement.

You make the point that the public's business should be transacted in its entirety in public and, as a general statement and perhaps in this instance this is correct, irrespective of the Brown Act. Had you stuck to this point you would have been on sound ground. You make a second point that the suggested use of a city administrator is not a matter dealing specifically with "personnel," in or out of the Brown Act, and this too is correct.

But your editorial is involved most deeply to the application of the Brown Act to the conduct of the members of the city council in this particular instance. Now if I remember this act, a councilman who attends such a meeting, knowing that it is a closed meeting, is guilty of a crime. Nowhere do you say that anyone has violated the Brown Act, but you infer it from beginning to the end of your editorial. . . .

Without saying so, you have given your readers cause to believe that the members of the city council have been guilty of criminal conduct. If this is your conviction (as it appears to be), you should say so categorically. . . .

Highway Has The Lunatics

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Greetings, fellow lunatics. Five days a week I join you in our San Francisco-Marin trek. . . .

The real cause of my concern is your consistent, persistent, and continual habit of switching and criss-crossing highway lanes without any previous warning or indication of your intent.

. . . I cannot in justice really argue against your right to attempt mutual mass suicide if you so desire. But I can, and herewith jolly well do, hotly, deeply, highly, greatly, and tremendously gripe, complain, protest, resent, and holler against your miserable and continually frightening and competent endeavors to make my death simultaneous with your. . . .

I have had to resort to the only defense which appears possible, and that is to give each of you a hearty blast on my horn when you decide I am a good candidate for the graveyard.

. . . Next time you hear me swear at you with a blast of my horn's profanity, you will know why it happened, and since I suspect that I already know how you feel and think, you have my permission to continue the glares and hurt looks . . . just signal, huh? . . .

To those among you who are not guilty, I submit an urgent and sincere request that you join me in my honking concert. . . .

As for the rest of you, the guilty ones, I ask only that you heed my plea, and please signal!! I don't really care about you . . . but it would be a shame to deprive the world of me.

Johnson's Mandate Doesn't Change Congress Leadership

WASHINGTON (AP) — From the way Democrats and Republicans in Congress have chosen their top leaders in this new session you'd never guess the 1964 election might have had some political significance.

YET, WHEN President Lyndon B. Johnson drowned conservative Sen. Barry Goldwater in history's greatest plurality, Republicans lost 38 seats in the House and two in the Senate. Was this a mandate for change?

Apparently not among Democrats or Republicans in Congress where change is slow, maneuverings are intricate, old favors are remembered, friendships can be stronger than ideology, and politicians in both houses seem slow to learn.

In the House, the depleted Republicans threw the conservative, 64-year-old Charles Halleck out of his job as their leader — he had held it six years—and replaced him with equally conservative Gerald R. Ford, 51, of Michigan.

Ford's supporters gave this reason for wanting the change: They thought Republicans needed a younger and more forceful "image" than the rather languid Halleck who, after his defeat, said: "That's how the ball bounces."

FORD HAD BEEN chairman of the House Republican Conference, or caucus. Promptly House Republicans filled it with Melvin R. Laird, 42, of Wisconsin.

Laird, who calls himself a "creative conservative," helped put together the 1964 Republican platform which so pleased Goldwater's supporters. In getting Ford's old job, Laird beat out Peter H. B. Frelinghuysen, 48, of New Jersey.

Frelinghuysen, considered more moderate if not more liberal, than Ford or Laird, was not discouraged. With the backing of Ford he then tried to get the job of Leslie C. Arends, 69, of Illinois, the assistant leader for 21 years.

The conservative Arends was re-elected Thursday to his old job. This was the first major test of Ford's leadership when he backed Frelinghuysen. So it was as much of a defeat for him as for the New Jerseyite.

IN THE SENATE, the Republicans changed nothing. They kept all their leaders, headed by Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois. He has become famous on television for his prose, sometimes doleful but always embroidered with classical allusions or nimble imagery.

But the Senate Democrats didn't pay attention to the election results, either, when it came to leadership. As expected, and there was no contest, they re-elected the mild but popular Mike Mansfield of Montana to the top leadership job.

The fight was over the assistant leadership, relinquished by Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey after he was elected vice president.

Here the contestants were Russell B. Long of Louisiana, John O. Pastore of Rhode Island, and A. S. Mike Monroney of Oklahoma. Pastore and Monroney had supported far more major Kennedy - Johnson programs than Long.

But the 46-year-old Long won, even though his native Louisiana was one of the five Southern states which voted against Johnson last year. Long, however, had campaigned for the president there.

An example of his position on some major issues: he voted against the limited nuclear test ban treaty, medical care for the aged through Social Security, civil rights, domestic Peace Corps, federal aid to education and foreign aid for the past several years.

AND LAST YEAR he managed Johnson's successful Senate fight for an $11.5-billion tax cut.

House Democrats changed nothing. They re-elected their old leaders, starting with Speaker John W. McCormack of Massachusetts.

Soviet Troops May Enter Brush Wars

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — Russia is adding a powerful new fighting force to its growing military machine.

A MARINE CORPS of more than 250,000 elite troops—considerably larger than that of the U.S. — is secretly being organized for future use outside of the Soviet Union.

This unannounced military development, under way since last summer, is believed to be closely tied to an ominous shift in the Kremlin's political-military strategy, according to the latest U.S. intelligence estimates.

In a confidential briefing of U.S., British, French and German experts at a CIA-sponsored intelligence conference in Geneva, Raymond Garthoff, high-ranking State Department adviser on political-military affairs, revealed this revolutionary change in Soviet policy, warning:

"The creation of a Marine Corps during the summer of 1964 is a significant example of increased Soviet interest in providing the capability to intervene with Soviet troops in revolutionary situations in Africa, Asia and Latin America."

Garthoff declared that the role of new, advanced nuclear-missile weapons in Soviet strategy is "the purely political one of deterring any counter-intervention by the U.S. in revolutionary situations" such as those developing in the Congo and Cyprus.

U.S. military experts say the new amphibious force is being patterned after the U.S. Marine Corps that now has a force of approximately 196,000.

SINCE RUSSIA does not have aircraft carriers, its Navy airforce is being supplied with jets and tanker planes that operate very much like the tactical air wings of the U.S. Air Force's long-range striking force.

Naval intelligence now ranks the Soviet navy as second only to the U.S. fleet in operational warships and submarines. Russia is estimated to have at least a dozen nuclear-propelled submarines.

This switch in Soviet strategy comes at a time when Defense Secretary Robert McNamara has quietly been depreciating the importance of the U.S. Marine Corps in putting out Communist-instigated brushfires.

INSTEAD OF using the Marines in South Viet Nam, as recommended by the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Secretary McNamara has ruled out a major role for the corps in that strife-torn nation. The Joint Chiefs unsuccessfully proposed that the Marines help in the jungle training of South Vietnamese forces and guard U.S. planes in the area.

Except for a token operation, the Marines also have been cut out of the Johnson administration's counter-insurgency program, which congressional critics contend is developing into a social-action, rice-raising army instead of "fighting" men.

As reported in this column on Nov. 3, Russia is steadily increasing the firepower and mobility of all branches of its armed forces.

A U.S. Army study reveals that Soviet armed forces total 3,345,000 — 400,000 more than earlier estimates. Of this force, 2,300,000 are in the Soviet army; 420,000 in the airforce; 400,000 in the navy, including 100,000 already recruited in the new marine corps, and 225,000 militarized "security forces."

The Army's study stresses that the Soviet state of readiness, combat effectiveness and modern equipment make them at least the equal of, or better than, any forces in the world.

ACCORDING TO these Army findings, the Russian forces are supported by "the largest munitions industry in the world, which is now producing large quantities of effective ground-forces weapons, including missiles."

U.S. military experts believe the Kremlin plans to use this tremendous stockpile of weapons and enlarged military forces as a base to step up its instigated "wars of liberation" in the undeveloped nations.

Humphrey's Boyhood Pal Buys New TV To Keep Eye On Him

Fred Dahl, Mill Valley gardener, has bought a new television set "to see what Humphrey is going to do."

THE OTHER DAY we visited Dahl at his cottage, where he was frying bacon in a big, black skillet.

"Yes, I knew Humphrey," he said, "when I lived in the small farm town of Dolan, South Dakota." Dahl, who said he has been in his late 50s for 20 years, was a farmer then, lived in Dolan 33 years.

"When Humphrey was 13 years old, the professor couldnot stick him on anything. He sold papers when he came to Dolan in 1919. He was born in Wisconsin.

"His dad was a druggist and a Sunday school teacher in a Methodist church. He was a good one. He was always a little bit late but people came there to listen. They didn't come to go to sleep.

"We called him (the vice president) Pinky. Because of his freckles. If I met him today, I'd say, 'Hi, Pinky.'"

Dahl said Humphrey "had more gab than any of them. It came just like you turn on a faucet. He got straight A's and then he went to college. He is a politician, that man. His brother is still a druggist."

Dahl put the bacon on a plate and said, "If Johnson hadn't got Humphrey for vice president, I think I would have gone back to South Dakota." Born in Denmark and a Republican when he first came to the U. S., Dahl said that when Hoover came into office, "I changed my menu."

Yes, of course, he'll watch the inauguration Wednesday. "I've got a new TV," he said proudly.

JOE RODRIGUES of Muir Beach, who claims he is "one of the best fishermen in the county," said he caught seven fish about a week ago "down toward Tennessee Cove." Two capezoni, four sea trout and an eel. "I gave them all away to a friend who can eat fish three times a day," said Joe.

"I think we should cut corners and use them" is the latest Gomezism, made at a city council meeting by Manuel Gomez, discussing a proposed government loan for an added improvement to the Mill Valley library.

The white-headed, bushy-browed Scot turns out bowls, lamp bases, planter pots and hot pads in his basement which are smooth as silk, honest as the redwood and walnut they are made from. "I do it because I like to," said Henderson.

He showed us his workshop, where we noticed—before the lathe—a huge touring car. "It's my son's, Malcolm's. It's a 1925 Chrysler. He bought it for $35 in 1938, wants to re-do it and won't sell it," said Henderson. His son now lives in Louisiana but another son takes it out to keep it in condition. "It's too cold and windy for me," said Henderson.

Foreign Aid Shows Troops Advantages Of U.S.-Style Life

WASHINGTON — As you probably remember, the country of South Nonomura has been fighting the Communist guerrillas for four years. Thanks to American military aid and American advisers, South Nonomura now has one of the best-equipped armies in the world, and when it comes to hardware the South Nonomuran soldier lacks nothing. Newsreels of the crack South Nonomuran army show them flying off into the jungle in American helicopters, armed to the teeth. You get a feeling of pride that a group of peasants like the South Nonomurans can be whipped into a first-class fighting outfit.

UNFORTUNATELY, despite all the aid, the South Nonomurans haven't been doing very well against the North Nonomuran guerrillas who are armed with nothing more than fishing rods and World War II rifles. Why, everyone asks, can't the South Nonomuran army contain the guerrillas?

One of our correspondents just came back after an interview with a crack South Nonomuran officer and showed us his notes. The interview shed some light on the problem.

Correspondent: Captain, how is the war going?

Captain: War going great. Tell Americans we like K-rations very much, but Q-rations lousy. We need more cigarettes and beer. Morale very low without beer.

Correspondent: Why hasn't your army been able to contain the guerrillas?

Captain: Our army trained by Americans to fight enemy in open. Lousy Communists hide in jungle.

Correspondent: Why don't you go into the jungle and get them?

Captain: You crazy or something? You can get bitten by snakes in the jungle. Besides, your uniform gets dirty. We have to keep uniforms nice and clean for coup d'etat.

Correspondent: That's true.

Captain: And don't forget, you have to walk in jungle. Since Americans came, my men won't go anywhere unless it's by truck or helicopter. Walking is for lousy Communists.

Correspondent: There have been many instances where you have had the Communists surrounded and they've disappeared. How do you explain this?

Captain: Very simple. As soon as we hear about lousy Communist attack, we send crack soldiers there to fight them. But crack soldiers must be supported by many men. We must have hot food, showers, officers' club, non-commissioned officers club, PX, chaplain, movies and comfortable living quarters. By the time my crack outfit is ready fight, lousy Communists have escaped into jungle.

Correspondent: Wouldn't it be better if you fought the war without all these things?

Captain: We crack outfit. Thanks to American training and know-how we not going to fight dirty war like dirty Communists.

Correspondent: But you're not getting anywhere.

Captain: That's what you think. In another year I make colonel. Then I overthrow the government. You see me then, I give you good interview.

Correspondent: But, Captain, isn't there some way of turning the tide against the guerrillas?

Captain: It's too late. My crack troops have taste of American way of life. We are so busy keeping them supplied, we don't have much time to fight lousy Communists. All they talk about these days is G. I. Bill of Rights.

Correspondent: Is there anything you need that would help speed up the war?

Captain: Yes, send us more Japs.

Correspondent: Japs?

Captain: You know, Jap transistor radios.

FROM CLAM-DIG TO SNOW SHOVELS

Lowest tides in more than 20 years lured an estimated 143,000 clam-diggers to a nine-mile stretch of sand at Pismo Beach yesterday and Saturday (above) while along the Atlantic Coast and northern states millions shivered as the mercury dropped to record lows. Hundreds of rural residents were snowbound in Indiana Saturday by a blizzard which stopped almost all highway traffic (right) except heavy National Guard rescue equipment. Daytona Beach had a record low of 27 degrees yesterday; further north it was as much as 15 below.

Legislation Asked To Bar State March Of Freeways

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — An Assembly committee called today for legislation to restrain the march of freeways into places where they are not wanted.

The Assembly Interim Committee on Natural Resources, Planning and Public Works released the second section of its report to the legislature.

It called for a number of changes in the State Highway Commission, which now makes the final selection of freeway routings. Essentially, the changes would make the commission more representative of varied interests, and more independent from the Division of Highways, whose engineers propose routings.

The lawmakers returned to their desks today from weekend recess for the start of the third week of the 1965 session. Both the Senate and Assembly convened at 2 p.m.

In the first section of its report, released yesterday, the committee called for billboard control of state highways, prompt steps to protect Lake Tahoe, a state tidelands policy, progress in regional planning for San Francisco Bay, more state riding and hiking trails, and better enforcement of boating laws.

In today's section dealing with freeways, the committee said planning "appears to place disproportionate emphasis on engineering and cost considerations" in judging possible routings.

It said the engineers who propose routings should be specifically told to consider, as well, such factors as community values, recreation, aesthetic and park values, and adjacent land values.

And, it said, the membership of the commission which judges routing proposals should be made "more broadly representative of the total public interest."

The committee said the commission should be given its own staff and hearing officers, instead of using Division of Highways personnel who have an interest in certain routes.

The committee also said the Commission should lose its present power to go through state park lands. It said parks officials should be given veto power to go through state park lands. It said parks officials should be given veto power over proposed routings through parks.

And, it said, the commission's decisions should be appealable to the court.

Some of the loudest furor over freeway routings has arisen over proposed freeways through or near the redwoods of northwestern California. The committee report quotes at length from testimony taken at hearings on some of these proposals.

On Lake Tahoe, the committee suggested that the California and Nevada legislatures provide the tools necessary for a bi-state, regional authority.

It said the California legislature should recognize and sanction the Tahoe Regional Planning Commission—now an advisory group—to "serve during the interim period prior to the creation of the regional authority."

Committee Chairman Edwin L. Z'Berg, D-Sacramento, summed up the committee's findings in general this way:

"It is clear that in this decade we are facing a crucial, and in some instances, final test of our ability to develop responsible public policies for integrated planning and management of what remains of our great bounty of resources in California.

"If we fail this test, as we have in many ways in the past, the once beautiful face and body of California will become increasingly scarred and bruised to the point where the richness and quality of our lives will be threatened . . ."

Brown Seeks Fund To Fight Pollution

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gov. Brown gave strong backing today to stronger federal control over water pollution, and asked a Senate committee for more federal money in fighting pollution at the local level.

In prepared testimony before a Senate Public Works Committee subcommittee on air and water pollution, the California chief executive commented:

"The protection and preservation of the nation's water resources . . . is a matter of life and death to the people and economy of my own state.

"Although recent weather reports from California might lead you to believe that we have an overabundance of this resource, the most heavily populated regions of our state are semi-arid.

"I am a strong advocate of federal water pollution control legislation," Brown said. He backed a pending bill to set up a special water pollution agency.

But, the governor added, under the proposed law most California rivers — which do not empty into other states but into the Pacific Ocean — would be defined as "interstate" water. This would make them subject to federal control of water standards.

California, Brown declared, "does not believe that the federal government should have the authority to promulgate and enforce water quality standards on intrastate streams unless the state is unable to enforce water pollution control measures and has requested such intervention . . . "

Brown also called for stepped-up federal financial aid to local communities fighting water pollution, and for an all-out effort at learning how to re-use waste water.

School Superintendent Vote Will Be Sought By Lawmakers

SACRAMENTO (UPI) —Three legislators say they plan to introduce measures this week making the office of superintendent of public instruction an appointive rather than elective job.

The post, now held by Dr. Max Rafferty, would be appointed by the 10 members of the Board of Education, who would continue to be named by the governor—but for longer terms.

The board is charged with determining education policy for public schools under current provisions of the California Constitution. The superintendent is the board's administrative officer and director of the Department of Education.

However, the superintendent, chosen in non-partisan elections for four-year terms, is responsible to the people and the Constitution makes no provision to settle disputes between him and the board. Rafferty's term since he took office in 1962 has been marked repeatedly by clashes between Rafferty and Board President Thomas Braden.

Since the 1920s, proposals to make the job appointive have been made but have yet to win the required voter approval.

Assemblyman Charles B. Garrigus, D-Reedley, chairman of the Assembly Education Committee, said his bill would have the board appoint the superintendent for four-year terms and extend current board terms from four to eight years and require staggered appointments. He said the staggering would all but remove the possibility that any one governor could gain political control of the board.

Garrigus also included a provision that would permit Rafferty to seek re-election every four years for as long as he likes. If he should lose an election or resign, his successor would have only one term before the new system became effective.

Garrigus said he wanted the provision to dispel any talk of partisan politics. The talk might arise if the legislature, controlled by Democrats, passed a plan that put Rafferty, a Republican, out of his job.

If approved, the Garrigus proposal would go before the voters in two years as a constitutional amendment.

The other two plans were identical and came from Assemblyman Mervyn M. Dymally, D-Los Angeles, and Sen. George Miller, Jr., D-Martinez.

The Dymally - Miller bills, supported by the Califoria Teachers Association, differed from the Garrigus proposal by requiring that board members be appointed for staggered 10-year terms. Dymally said they also would not include the provision permitting Rafferty to seek re-election continuously.

Summer School Program Due Fairfax Board

Fairfax School District trustees will be asked to approve plans for a summer school program when they meet at 7:45 p.m. tomorrow at Manor School.

Appointment of a principal, setting of dates and selection of courses for the summer session will all be considered by the trustees.

A resolution calling for the election of trustees April 20 will be voted on. Terms of trustees Laurence Hermann and George Stone expire June 30.

The board will choose a trustee to replace Robert Lauppe, who resigned in November. It will hear a report from Stanley Little, chairman of the park and recreation commission on a city recreation project and a report from Superintendent Homer Sisk on school district unification.

Strange-Acting Skunk Dispatched In Novato

Novato police shot a skunk yesterday in a yard at 9 Shon Court after a citizen called to complain that the animal fas acting strangely.

Police said the body would be sent to the county health department to learn if it had been rabid.

Law Is Proposed To Curb Development Speculation

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Legislation was proposed today to curb an age-old problem with a modern twist in California — land speculation.

Assemblyman John T. Knox, D-Richmond, introduced bills to carry out a clampdown called for by Gov. Brown in his message to the legislature.

The main proposal is to require approval by the California Districts Securities Commission of any district bonds issued in connection with land development. This would presumably insure adequate security behind such bonds and end a current problem, Knox said.

He also proposed repealing several parts of state law he said encourage land speculation.

The problem Knox is aiming at is this:

Under current law, almost anyone can vote to form a special district, drawing the boundary lines to include only land he owns or controls. Then he may issue tax-exempt bonds for millions of dollars. In one case in Mendocino County, four persons authorized issuing $4 million in bonds.

Then the bonds are sold to the public through reputable firms — although generally the purchasers are unsophisticated members of the public who assume that the bonds, coming from a reputable firm and issued by a public district, are a good conservative investment.

But, said Knox, if the district issuing the bonds goes sour, the bond purchasers don't get the expected dividends or interest. And they may have to file a civil suit to get back their original investment — assuming there is enough money left in the district.

Knox says that aside from fleecing an unsuspecting investor thousands of miles away, the practice also can raise bond interest rates for such things as school districts and undermine investors' confidence in California municipal bonds.

THE BEER THAT STUCK IN THE GLASS

A beer keg hangs precariously in the plate glass window of a Chicago antique shop today, proving a puzzler for policeman Ronald Kargol. Police theorized someone may have gotten "loaded," worked himself into a lather and made himself a barrel of trouble. Detectives also are checking to find if anything is missing from window display.

Christian Unity Octave To Start

First program of the San Rafael Christian Unity Octave, an unusual experiment in breaking down the barriers between Catholics and Protestants, will be held at 8 p.m. today in the First Presbyterian Church.

By sad coincidence, the week-long program will begin on the evening of the same day that Rt. Rev. Daniel J. McAlister, late administrator of St. Raphael's Parish, was laid to rest.

Solemn Mass of Requiem for Monsignor McAlister, credited with a key role in establishing the Unity Octave, was held this morning.

At tonight's program, Rev. Wesley C. Baker, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will use the first sentence of the Apostle's Creed, "I Believe in the Holy Catholic Church," as his sermon topic.

Other sermons through the week will take passages from the creed as their themes.

A highlight of the sessions comes at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow, following the annual dinner at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, when Archbishop Joseph T. McGucken of the Catholic Archdiocese of San Francisco, will speak.

His address, "Ecumenism and Vatican II," will be the first such speech to a non-Catholic congregation in the western United States.

Also scheduled are worship services at the First Methodist Church of San Rafael on Wednesday, at St. Paul's Episcopal Church on Thursday and at Trinity Lutheran Church on Friday. Each will be at 8 p.m.

Delegations of parishoners from St. Raphael's will attend each octave event.

The octave will conclude with a Christian hymns festival Saturday and a "neighborhood dialogue" between 30 couples of five faiths in their own homes Sunday.

The Saturday hymn program will start at 8 p.m. at Angelico Hall of Dominican College. It will attempt to acquaint Catholics with Protestant musical forms.

A discussion between two noted theologians, one Protesant and the other Catholic, has been postponed until June 4, which falls in the week of Pentecost.

That program, which would have been held last night, was postponed due to Monsignor McAlister's death. It will feature Dr. Robert McAfee Brown of Stanford University and Rev. Frank Norris of St. Patrick's Seminary.

Airman Arrested After Hot Chase

A/1c Jimmie D. Morgan, 21, of Travis Air Force Base, was to appear today in Marin Municipal Court on a charge of reckless driving after he was chased early Saturday at speeds up to 100 miles an hour on Highway 101.

He was arrested at 4:05 a.m. near Marin Citiy by Highway Patrol officer Ivan D. Jump, who said he first saw the car go by at Greenbrae. Jump said the auto slowed slightly while passing another car at the top of Alto Hill, allowing the patrol car to close on it, red light and siren going.

But the car sped on, finally stopping after crossing the Richardson Bay bridge. Morgan was held in Marin County jail in lieu of $110 bail.

Planners To Meet

The Tiburon planning commission will meet at 8 p.m. today at Del Mar School to consider a request by Mr. and Mrs. Chester Bowles Jr. that they be allowed to split a 52,358-square foot lot at 180 Hacienda Drive.

Burglaries Reported To Sheriff Aides

Two minor burglaries, one involving theft of about $100, were reported over the weekend by Marin County sheriff's officers.

Ted Cohen, 488 Irving Court, Bel Aire, told deputies someone entered his residence by an unlocked window in the past several days and removed the cash from an unlocked cash box. He said the money was in $1 bills and small change.

Dorothy C. Stubbs, 45½ Via Belardo, Greenbrae, reported a purse containing $10 cash was stolen from her car parked last Thursday near the west side of the Las Galinas Golf Club clubhouse, 4480 North Redwood Drive. There was no forced entry, deputies said.

Retarded Children

Marin Aid to Retarded Children will hold a membership meeting at 8 p.m. today at the San Rafael Recreation Center, 37 Union Street. Highlight will be movies including a KPIX film, "The Case for the Limited Child." New officers, elected last month, will preside for the first time, headed by M. David Sokoloff, president.

School-Medical Conference Draws Attendance Of 500

Nearly 500 Marin County teachers, Bay Area physicians and psychologists and representatives of the California Youth Authority attended a day-long school-medical conference Saturday at College of Marin.

Its purpose was to give teachers and physicians an opportunity to discuss their roles in working with children who have personality disturbances, reading, behavorial and adjustment problems.

"We're sure that the success of the program will cause local school districts to have similar conferences to discuss physical, mental and educational problems of their 'problem learners,' " said Lawrence Lindberg, director of instruction in the county schools office.

The conference, planned since last summer, was sponsored by the California Medical Assn., Marin Assn. of School Administrators, Marin Medical Society and Marin County Schools office.

Church Building Fund Drive Nets $21,500

A total of $21,500 was pledged or contributed yesterday, final day of a building fund drive for the St. Andrew United Presbyterian Church, Marin City. This amount is expected to be increased since a number of calls are still to be made, according to Jesse E. Berry, campaign chairman.

Thirty campaigners called on the congregation in Marin City and Tamalpais Valley yesterday after church. Construction of the $105,000 church is to be begun next spring.

Owner Reports Auto Missing

Dorothy J. King of Santa Maria told San Rafael police yesterday her 1956 Buick two-door had been taken from the parking area at 162 Belvedere Street Saturday night.

Police said neighborhood youngsters told Mrs. King her car had been towed away, and she waited until morning to call police because she assumed officers had authorized the tow-away. They knew nothing of it, however.

Assailant Hits Youth, 15

A 15-year-old Santa Venetia youth was struck on the head Saturday by an unknown assailant, who then fled, Marin County sheriff's officers reported today.

Deputies said Glenn Eddie Wehrer, 125 Mabry Way, told them he was walking at the intersection of Mabry Way and Geneva Way Sataurday night when struck. Dazed, he fell to the ground, according to the report, but saw his assailant fleeing.

He described the man as about six feet tall, weighing approximately 180 pounds.

Tables Stolen From Rec Room

A rattan coffee table and two end tables, worth about $150, were stolen from the recreation room of an apartment house at 105 Canal Street, San Rafael, manager Lloyd R. Netterman told police yesterday.

Netterman said the door, usually locked, was left unlocked Saturday night.

Novatan Re-Elected Eel River Assn. Chief

Jerome Gilbert of Novato was re-elected president of the Eel River Assn. at a meeting Friday in Santa Rosa.

William R. Seeger of San Rafael was re-elected treasurer for 1965.

Main speaker was Brig. Gen. Arthur H. Frye Jr., division engineer, South Pacific Division, Army Corps of Engineers.

Frye said the corps of engineers expects to spend some 19 million dollars on emergency repair and rehabilitation work in flood-devastated Northern California. He said the job will not be finished for 12 to 15 months.

Rep. Donald H. Clausen (R-Crescent City), reported on the flood damages that he and a congressional subcommittee had viewed in a tour last week. He said he would work to expedite studies on flood control and water diversion in the affected area.

Lt. Col. Robert H. Allen, district engineer of the Corps of Engineers, reported that proposed projects in the north coastal region will be accelerated because of the Christmas week floods. The dam on Dry Creek, northwest of Healdsburg, is proposed for a speedup of about a year.

Cactus Damaged

Someone cut the leaves off six cactus plants and took the numbers off the mailbox at 2262 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, between 11:30 p.m. Saturday and 7:30 a.m. yesterday, owner Robert D. Satterthwaite complained to police.

WHEN QUALITY COUNTS

7600 men are working on PG&E construction jobs today and every day.

Every working day this year, 7600 men and more than a million dollars go to work on new construction to serve PG&E customers. That many men will work all year long at jobs supported by PG&E's $275 million expansion program for 1965. That amount of money, invested every day in new equipment and materials, as well as in payrolls, becomes a valuable part of the whole state's economy.

Moreover, the new structures and facilities become valuable additions to local tax rolls, helping support local schools, hospitals, police and fire departments. Of course, all this new construction doesn't slow us down one bit in performing our biggest job, around the clock, supplying millions of Californians with the gas and electricity they need.

Helicopter Piloting School Is Established In Novato

A new school in helicopter piloting has been established in Novato.

American Helicopters Corp., based at the Lodge, 8141 Redwood Highway, will give instruction to both non-flyers and airplane pilots wishing to qualify for private, commercial and instructor's ratings, according to Robert L. Peterson of Ross, president.

The school operates a two-place Hughes helicopter from the Lodge property and "ties it down" at the Marin County Airport when not in use, Peterson said. Another helicopter is expected by Feb. 15.

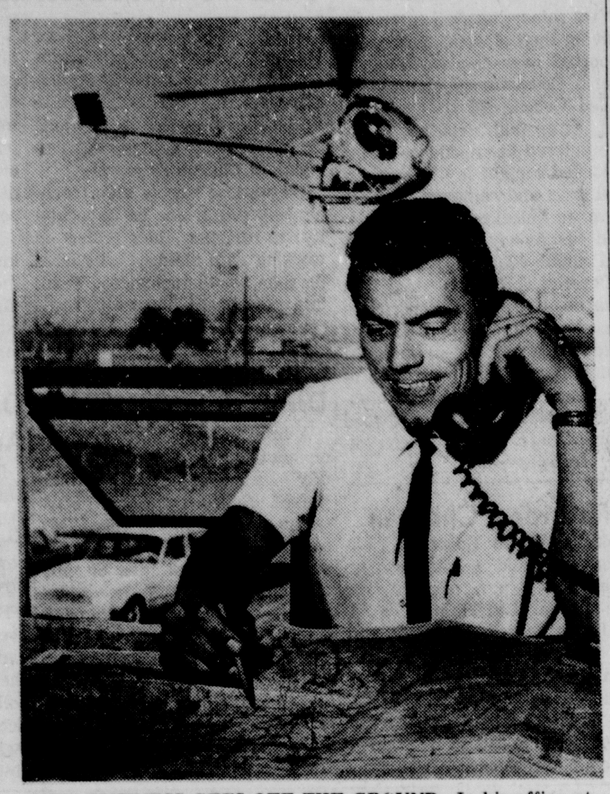

Audio-visual equipment for ground school training is in the company's offices on the second floor of the Lodge.

Peterson said he expects larger helicopters will be purchased later, when the company hopes to get into instruction for industrial ratings, permitting the lifting of large loads. Approval is being sought from the Federal Aviation Agency to establish a permanent landing pad on property north of the Lodge parking area.

In addition to flight instruction, American Helicopters will engage in air taxi and charter service.

Ronald E. Winkler of Kentfield is chief of pilots and instructors. He is a professional flyer of several years experience, and is vice president and a director of the corporation.

Peterson formerly headed the Marin Transit bus system which plied in San Rafael and Terra Linda. He is a director of Redwood Moving and Storage Co., San Rafael, and Republic Moving and Storage, Oakland.

Aero-Jet Sues Over Gunsight

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Prior to 1961, says Aerojet-General Corp., it tried to get Lockheed Aircraft Corp. to buy its idea for an aerial gunsighting and fire control system.

Instead, Aerojet-General said in a suit for $6.3 million damages filed Wednesday, Lockheed used the idea of the system to develop a mechanism of its own — thus preventing Aerojet from marketing it themselves.

Lockheed hasn't yet answered the charges.

Dividing this into four new brackets makes it possible to have a low starting rate.

You will benefit from the lower rate, but you may find you owe a larger tax bill at the end of 1964; or you may be accustomed to receiving a refund and find that you owe additional taxes.

This can happen because withholding from the wages was reduced to 14 from 18 per cent on March 5, 1964.

Stocks Close Higher

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed higher today in active trading.

Popular market averages were in record high ground all day.

Steels continued higher but motors backed away from early gains.

Some coppers were weak.

Volume for the day was estimated at 5.6 million shares compared with 5.37 million Friday.

Gains of fractions to about a point outnumbered losers in the same range.

A 4-point jump by Du Pont was a big help in pushing averages beyond their November records.

Steels renewed their advance of late last week with Jones & Laughlin up 1, Lukens up about 3, U.S. Steel and Republic Steel fractions.

Studebaker looked like the most active stock as it advanced a substantial fraction, making a big percentage gain, on news of the U.S.-Canadian agreement to eliminate tariffs on autos.

Aerospace issues continued weak, Boeing and Grumman losing more than a point each.

IBM was up about 4, having reported higher earnings. Xerox gained around 3.

Prices advanced in active trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. government bonds continued steady.

OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

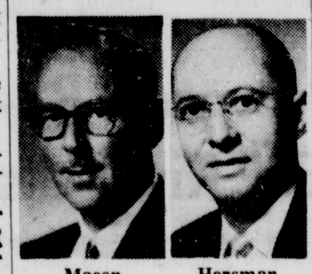

By HARRY CRAFT

Two Marin Stars Nominated For Shrine Game; How About Stein?

Two Marin County residents have organized a new San Francisco investment securities firm — but one will not be active in the company for another two years.

Burnett, Douglass and Co., 315 Montgomery Street, San Francisco, has as its principals Donn C. Douglass of Ross and Emerson Burnett of Sausalito. Temporarily Burnett will be a limited partner. He is serving as administrative assistant to Rep. P. T. Mink from Hawaii and won't be able to break away from Washington, D.C. until 1967.

Management will rest on the shoulders of Douglass, who recently resigned as a partner in Brush Slocumb and Co., Inc., where he was manager of the trading department.

Mason Horsman

TWO MARIN MEN are observing anniversaries with Wells Fargo Bank this month: Colin J. Mason of Tiburon and Clifford L. Horsman of Novato.

Mason is celebrating his 35th year with the company. He is manager of the Marina office in San Francisco. Horsman is observing his 30th year; he is assistant manager in Novato.

TWO SAUSALITO antique dealers—Jeanne Davis and Kay Sheridan—will have exhibits at the 17th annual Antique Show and Sales at the Berkeley City Club, 2315 Durant Avenue, Berkeley, from Thursday through Sunday, Jan. 28-31. Hours are 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. and to 6 p.m. on Sunday. Tickets at $1 may be purchased at the door.

INSURANCE BROKER John Childs of Lucas Valley has bought out the insurance department of Livewire Lindskog and will maintain his Childs Insurance Agency in Lindskog's San Rafael office at 910 Irwin Street, representing old line companies.

Childs returned to Marin County from Arizona about a year ago. Three years before he had been a resident of Glenwood.

Robert Lindskog recently closed his Mill Valley office and is now concentrating his activities entirely in real estate and particularly in central Marin.

RONALD L. GIBSON of Tiburon has joined Pisani Printing Co., San Francisco, in the newly-formed position of creative sales representative, in which he will develop markets for the firm's graphic arts services. He was formerly art production manager with Schmidt Lithograph Co.

GENERAL MANAGER Tom King of Crockett's Van and Storage, San Rafael, reports that a new lot of 150 additional air-ride moving vans has been purchased by Aero Mayflower Transit Co. of Indianapolis, for which Crockett is Marin agent. They are described as 34-foot-high cube vans with wider side doors than usual for easier loading, and also have curved instead of square wheel boxes inside, permitting rolling in an automobile for shipment along with the furniture. Delivery is scheduled in time for spring moving.

HAIR STYLIST Raymond E. McWade of Fairfax, head of the House of Kwan Yin, San Rafael, has been appointed to International Coiffure Des Dames, an organization of salon owners which frequently sets the mode for new hair fashions.

New Computer To Check Taxes

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has tightened its grip on the taxpayer's pocketbook.

International Business Machines (IBM) announced Sunday it is installing one of its most powerful new computers in the IRS bureau here. IBM said the machine would be able to absorb millions of figures per second.

The installation is part of a move to streamline data processing and to facilitate the checking in income tax returns.

Police Checking On Sailboat Story

A San Rafael man held a Sausalitan in his office Saturday while he called police to arrest the Sausalitan for running away with a boat he had not paid for.

San Rafael police booked Marshall Theodore Hoesing, 24, of 317 Caledonia Street, Sausalito, on Los Angeles warrants of arrest, then tried to piece together the story.

Hoesing was picked up at the 39 Joseph Court office of E. Mark Miller, who said Hoesing had paid him $600 down last year on a boat, and promised not to leave the area until the balance, due Friday, was paid off.

Instead, Miller charged, Hoesing and two other men started to sail down the coast, but went aground at Pigeon Point. There, Miller said, they sold the sails and tried to sell the boat.

Miller said he and another man who had been a partner in the original sale tried for some time to find Hoesing, who told them on the telephone that he was going to Los Angeles. Saturday, they found him and took him to Miller's office.

Police soon learned Hoesing was wanted in Los Angeles for petty theft and fraud. They held him on these charges while investigating Miller's story.

Talk On Orchid Slated Thursday

Herb Hager of Santa Cruz will speak on phalaenopsis orchids to the Marin Orchid Society at 7:45 p.m. Thursday at Crocker-Citizens Bank, Fairfax.

Roy Chapin of San Anselmo is the new president of the society; David Lapidus, San Anselmo, vice president; Mrs. Joseph Soldavini, San Anselmo, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Forrest Slack, Corte Madera, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Samuel Spencer, San Anselmo, board member.

MAYBE TOY FIRE ENGINE WAS LONELY

A small child's plastic toy, left on a floor furnace, caught fire at the home of Robert Menzies at 1428 Mission Avenue, San Rafael, at 8:15 a.m. yesterday.

The resulting blaze did about $800 damage to the living room and a hallway, San Rafael firemen said.

The story had an ironic twist, firemen reported as an afterthought: the toy that started it all was a plastic fire engine.

Cash Box Emptied In Marin City School

Theft of $178.74 from a cash box in the child care center of Manzanita School in Marin City was reported to Marin County sheriff's deputies Friday.

Deputies said the burglary apparently occurred between 6 p.m. Thursday and 7:30 a.m. Friday. Entry was gained by prying open a door.

San Rafael Police Book Five Boys On Curfew Law

Five youths were booked by San Rafael police this weekend for curfew violations in two separate incidents.

Four youths, three from San Rafael and the other from San Anselmo, were taken to juvenile hall at 4:45 a.m. Saturday after they were found drinking beer and wine with a 17-year-old San Rafael girl in a car parked on the Lincoln Avenue extension.

Police said the girl was released to her mother, but the four boys were booked for violating curfew and for having alcoholic beverages with them.

At the same hour yesterday, Patrolman Michael R. Fisher heard the sound of glass breaking as he passed the corner of Mill and Harbor streets.

Unable to find the sound's source, he enlisted the aid of two other officers. The three spotted a youth in front of 120 Front Street, but he ran as the patrol car neared.

Moments later, they found a 14-year-old Novato boy hiding under a trailer at 54 Hoag Street. Clambering out from under the trailer, the boy cried, "I didn't break anything!"

Lagunitas School Site On Agenda

Lagunitas School District trustees will make a last attempt to decide on a new grammar school site in time to get a bond and state loan authorization before the voters on April 20, when they meet tomorrow at 8 p.m. in Lagunitas School.

Deadline for voting to put bond and state loan questions on the April 20 ballot is Wednesday.

The trustees could call for the election without deciding on the school site but voters have already indicated to the board that they would not approve the bond issue and loan for a school until they knew where it was going, said Supt. Marshall J. McCunniff.

The trustees have agreed that a site adjacent to and including part of the Woodacre Improvement Club would be best for the school, but they have split on their willingness to go against public sentiment opposing the choice. In their latest vote they divided 2-2 with president Leslie S. Stone abstaining.

The board will also discuss preparation for the March 9 tax election in the district.

Mariners 'Off' But Still Romp To 14th Straight Win

Rolling to their 14th straight triumph, the College of Marin cagers added Sierra College to their conquered list Saturday night in Kentfield, turning back the Wolverines 87-68.

The triumph left the Tars as the only undefeated team in the Golden Valley Conference, Marin now with a 3-0 mark. Closest to Marin are Santa Rosa and Siskiyou, both with 2-1 marks.

By intermission, the Tars had a 42-25 advantage over the visitors Saturday. Tars coach Cal Riemcke felt his boys were "off" in the second half because of the strain of the night before, when the Tars whipped Santa Rosa 94-77 in a gruelling, hard fought game.

At one time in the second half, Sierra scored 10 points to none for Marin, but the home town boys had built up a comfortable margin and still led by 43-37. Then Marin got going again and rebuilt the wide margin.

Riemcke credited reserve forwards Rod Monti and Pete Coy with "sparking the second half rally" for Marin. Monti scored 9 points in that half and Coy was strong on the boards.

Guards Brad Busch and Jay Johnson and forward Fred Arnold also received the plaudits of Riemcke. Busch was the Tars' leading scorer with 22 points and Johnson was next with 17. Arnold was the team's leading rebounder, taking 19 from the boards.

Marin will get a two week rest before resuming GVC action because of final examinations. Next game for Marin will be Jan. 29 against Siskiyou in Kentfield.

Marin scoring in Saturday night's game:

Fred Arnold, 5-4-14; Pete Coy, 1-0-2; Larry Wolfe, 1-0-2; Bill Brody, 3-2-8; Rod Monti, 3-3-9; Jim Halm, 2-4-8; Jay Johnson, 7-3-17; Lorry Galassi, 0-1-1; Grad Busch, 9-4-22; Barry Hachmyer, 2-0-4. Totals: 33-21—87.

Coaches Cheer Return Of Platoon Grid Rule

Colleges Make Sub Changes

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — After a dozen years of experimentation, college football's rulemakers may finally have settled on a substitution system that will remain in effect for a long time.

"The new rule will satisfy the desires of all people who coach and administer college football" said Abe Martin of Texas Christian University, president of the American Football Coaches Association.

"As both a coach and an athletic director, I am delighted with it. We can go with this rule for many years, and I certainly hope we will do so."

The rule, adopted yesterday by the Football Rules Committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, will permit platoon substitution when the ball changes hands, between periods and after any score. Two players may enter the game at any time.

This wasn't the free and unlimited substitution rule demanded by 90 per cent of the nation's coaches, but it was so close that no complaints were heard.

"This is so near to free substitution that I don't see how anyone could kick about it," said Jack Curtice of California, rules chairman of the Football Coaches Association.

"I believe I can speak for coaches in general in saying that the rule is a fine one," Curtice added.

About the only thing the coaches wanted but didn't get was permission to send in kicking teams on fourth down. Offensive teams will have to be coached in getting down under punts.

But that, Curtice said, will mean better punt coverage "because we've got more speed on our offensive teams."

Actually, he said, college coaches were pretty well satisfied with last year's rule allowing platoon substitution while the clock was stopped.

The only serious objection was the need to stop the clock on fourth down to bring in defensive units. To avoid wasting a precious time out, most teams stopped the clock by delaying the game or jumping offside and accepting a five-yard penalty.

Except for that "disgraceful" development, Curtice said the rule was popular with football fans. This was demonstrated, he said, by last year's record attendance of 23,354,477.

The committee outlawed two platoon football in 1953. Every year since then, it has reworked the rule in a gradual move back toward freer substitutions.

This year, it did less tinkering with the rulebook than any time since 1953. But the substitution rule was debated for three days and the final vote, Curtice said, was "closer than pressed hands."

EVERYBODY WANTS THE ELUSIVE BALL

Peacock Gap and University of Santa Clara rugby players all reach for the ball during their game Saturday on the Peacock Gap field. The San Rafael team opened its home slate in fine fashion, whipping the visitors 37-3. Rick McMillen led the victors with three tries for nine points. Other Peacock ruggers who hit the scoring column were Tom Trutner, Jess Petori, Laird Eickmeyer, Don Peters, Rudy Carzajal and Sid Garber. The triumph gave the Peacock Gap team a 2-0 record. BOXING NEEDS MORE WHITE HOPES—CLAY

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP) — There's nothing wrong with boxing that "more white hopes" wouldn't cure, says Cassius Clay.

That's why he said he was pulling for Canadian champion George Chuvalo to knock out Floyd Patterson, the former world champion, in the 12-rounder at Madison Square Garden, Feb. 1. He and Chuvalo would draw more money said Clay.

Clay said he hoped to fight the winner after his return bout with Sonny Liston in Boston this spring.

At the same time Clay, the hit of the Boxing Writers' Association's 40th annual dinner last night, said if "we had more white men like Gene Tunney and Jack Dempsey around, and me fighting them, we'd draw a 30 million dollar gate."

"It seems the darker men are dominting boxing," said Clay, who swtiched back and forth from speaking in jest and in being dead serious.

"This must seem a little sad to white men," he added. "I'm

PLAY RESUMES TOMORROW

Marin Catholic's Soden Named Prep Of Week

Prep of the Week Tom Soden will lead the high-scoring Marin Catholic Wildcats into battle tomorrow against San Rafael High in a key Marin Athletic League basketball game on the San Rafael court, 4 o'clock.

In other MAL play tomorrow, Novato (2-1) is at Redwood (1-1) and Terra Linda (1-2) is at Drake (2-0), those games also starting at 4 o'clock. Marin Catholic (1-2) and San Rafael (1-1) were among the top three contenders picked by the league coaches before the season and should put up a good scrap tomorrow. In non-league action, Tam (1-2) hosts Petaluma tomorrow, also 4 o'clock.

Soden, six-foot, one-inch senior forward who was also a starter on last year's Wildcat team, was the big man last Friday when Marin handed Novato its first league loss of the campaign, 55-49. Soden scored 20 points and pulled down 13 rebounds to lead the game in both categories.

The previous Tuesday, Soden scored 13 points, although his team lost to Terra Linda 65-57. Through the first three league games for the Wildcats, Soden is averaging 15.3 points per contest. He has scored 18 field goals and 10 free throws for 46 points.

Redwood, 63-45 winner over Terra Linda last Friday, was a much improved team than the one that lost to Drake the previous Tuesday, 53-35, and should be ready to give the Hornets of Novato a good game. Novato will be out to get back on the winning trail after its first league loss last Friday.

Drake, resting on top of the league standings, drew a league bye Friday, but kept in shape by downing Analy 76-63. The Pirates will be heavy favorites to whip Terra Linda, but as has been evidenced so far this season, anything can happen in the MAL.

Lisher Is Hot But Pads Lose

San Rafael Padres went down to their second straight defeat in the second half of the Western Professional Bowling League last night, dropping a narrow 20½-16½ decision to the Santa Clara Moonliters at Santa Clara.

Joe Cruz provided the winning margin as he banged out a 259 game in the decisive team event.

But individual honors of the evening went to San Rafael's Ron Lisher who authored a five-game series of 1102 on games of 193, 255, 204, 245 and 205. Dick Treadway hit an 825 four-gamer (198, 234, 197, 196) and Terry Booth an 813 four-gamer (159, 237, 223, 194) for the Padres.

Other San Rafael scores were: Phil Wallace, 202, 192, 151 and 187 and Walt Silva 131.

Carmichael and El Cerrito top the league with 2-0 records, followed by San Francisco, Santa Clara, Fremont and South San Francisco at 1-1 and Stockton and San Rafael 0-2. San Rafael hosts San Francisco next Sunday, 6 p.m., at Country Club Bowl.

MAYS STILL AHEAD OF MANTLE IN $$$ DERBY

Willie Mays, who expects to get in four or five more years of baseball, will collect another $105,000 this season for playing with the San Francisco Giants.

The famed center fielder came to terms with the club on Saturday for the same salary that he pulled in last year as baseball's highest-paid active performer — about $5,000 more than Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees.

Mays led the National League in home runs last season with 47 and drove in 111 tallies. But a prolonged slump after the All-Star game resulted in a final batting average of .296. It marked the first time in eight years that Willie had dropped out of the .300 class.

'TITTLE TO ANNOUNCE HIS RETIREMENT SOON'

NEWARK, N. J. (AP)—New York Giant football star Y. A. Tittle plans to announce his retirement sometime this week, the Newark Star-Ledger reported in its Sunday edition. Tittle, a 15-year pro league veteran, will make it official at the New York Coliseum's Boat Show currently under way, the paper said.

Tittle does public relations work for the Owens Yacht Co. The paper said he would return to Palo Alto, Calif., where he operates a real estate and insurance firm, and might possibly scout new players for the Giants.

Two Marin Pitchers Share A No-Hitter

Ron Cole and Steve Miller, a pair of righthanders, teamed up to pitch no-hit, no-run ball yesterday to lead the Billings-Hutchison Builders to a 5-0 triumph over the Blazers of San Francisco.

Cole, property of the Houston Astros, pitched the first four innings and struck out seven batters. Relieving him in the fifth frame, Miller kept throwing goose eggs and struck out nine batters in his five innings on the hill. Twice Miller struck out the side.

While that brilliant hurling was going on, the Builders' batters were pounding out 11 hits. Ron Blum had a double and single and Cole and Jerry Ard, also of the Astros organization, each hit run-producing singles.

Thet riumph was the fifth straight for B-H, two of the five being no-hit, no-run affairs.

Sudden Death! Ellis Wins At San Diego

By BOB MYERS

SAN DIEGO (AP) — The San Diego Open Golf Tournament ended in the excitement of a sudden death playoff, a remarkable rally, victory for the underdog, Wes Ellis Jr., and a touching off-scene reaction by the most ardent admirer of the loser, Bill Casper Jr.

Ellis capped a dramatic comeback when he sank an eight-foot putt for a birdie three on the 73rd hole while Casper got down in par.

The 32-year-old Ellis, who doesn't play many tournaments away from his position as a club professional in West Caldwell, N. J., sent the affair into the extra hole when he made a sensational putt on the 72nd hole.

He knocked the ball in from the edge of the green, 45 feet away.

Shouts from the gallery shook the place.

But a small boy, standing in the crowd, cried.

His name? Billy Casper III, age 8. He had trotted as close to his daddy's heels as he could all day.

These were some of the reflections today as the golfers, including Ellis and Casper, headed north to play in Bing Crosby's annual pro-amateur attraction at Pebble Beach, Calif.

The San Diego Open was close all the way. The playoff came as no surprise. It appeared for awhile that even more than two would be in it. It was the third such finish in the tournament's last five years.

This one developed into a three-way struggle in the final nine holes between Casper, Ellis and Johnny Pott. Pott, who lost in a playoff to Tommy Jacobs in 1962, missed a short putt on the 16th hole, losing his chance for the playoff.

Pott finished with a 65 for 268, George Knudson had a 64 for 269 and Jay Dolan and Bud Holscher were tied at 272.

Defending champion Art Wall Jr. and British Open champion Tony Lema were in the 276 bracket, and Gene Littler, who scored a great 62 in the first round, finished with a 71 for 274.

Casper finished in a three-some ahead of Ellis and Pott. It appeared he had things sewed up.

But Ellis drew closer with a 45-foot putt on number 15, then a 12-footer for a birdie on number 17, and the 45-foot shaker on number 18.

In a sense, however, it was a rather negative finish.

"I was only trying to make par on the final hole," said Ellis. "The ball was going fast and it hit the back of the hole and I'm sure it would have gone three or four feet past. But it stayed in.

"I didn't think my putt would go in on the extra hole. I thought I hit it too weak. It's hard to believe that I won."

Ellis' last tournament triumph was in the 1959 Texas Open in his native San Antonio.

Casper, as amiable as always, offered this thought:

"I don't know how to play any better and not win."

Screams, Horror In 500-Mile Race

Gurney Triumphs; Spectator Killed

RIVERSIDE (AP)—The death of a spectator marred Dan Gurney's victory in the 500-mile, $65,000 Motor Trend-Riverside Raceway late model stock car road race.

Two other accidents also brought the 61,474 fans to their feet yesterday amid screams of horror.

Ronald Eugene Pickle, 20, of San Diego, was killed when the brakes slipped on a fork lift truck serving as a private grandstand for seven persons. The truck hurtled down an incline, running over Pickle and injuring two men and two boys. The accident occurred just after the race started.

A. J. Foyt of Houston, Tex., last year's Indianapolis 500 champion, suffered chest injuries and a cut hand in the 170th lap of the 185-lap race when his 1965 Ford slid off the track and down a bank on the raceway's ninth turn, then overturned.

A 1965 Ford driven by Ned Jarret of Camden, S.C., caught fire during a pit stop on lap 91. Jarret was pulled, uninjured, from the flaming car, but NASCAR technical instructor Bill Gazzaway, car owner Bondy Long, crewman Tom Granger and another unidentified crewman were treated at a Riverside hospital for burns. Their injuries were not thought serious.

PILOTS FORD

Gurney, 33, of Costa Mesa, Calif., piloting a 1965 Ford, finished the 185 laps in 5:41.42—an average of 87.708 miles per hour.

Behind him were: 2, Junior Johnson, Ronda, N.C., 1965 Ford; 3, Marvin Panch, Daytona Beach, Fla., 1965 Ford; 4, Darel Dieringer, Charlotte, N.C., 1965 Ford; 5, Eddie Grey and Bill Meyer, both of Gardena, Calif., 1964 Mercury; 6, Gene Davis, Santa Monica, Calif., 1964 Mercury; 7, Scottie Cain, Fresno, Calif., 1964 Mercury; 8, Sam Stanley, Newhall, Calif., 1964 Mercury; 9, W. S. "Buck" Baker, Charlotte, .C., 1964 Dodge; 10, Jerry Grant, Kent, Wash., 1963 Ford.

ONLY 15,446 SEE WEST STARS ROMP

HOUSTON (AP) — The American Football League's floating All-Star game settled in Houston, but for the fourth year it still belonged to the San Diego Chargers, host the previous three years.

Coach Sid Gilman's Chargers, beaten by Buffalo in the league championship game Dec. 26, played a major part in the West's 38-14 rout of the East coached by Buffalo's Lou Saban.

The victory margin was the greatest for the West in the four years of AFL All-Star games.

The contest was the finale of the long, long pro football season which began with the All-America Game at Buffalo, N.Y., late last June.

Houston was selected as the site after Negro players voted not to play in New Orleans. They complained of racial discrimination.

With five days notice, the game was shifted to Houston and the AFL Houston Oilers became the hosts.

Instead of the 65,000 fans expected at the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans only 15,446 turned out in 35,000-seat Jeppesen Stadium.

But the Oilers handled the game so efficiently on such short notice the league — which also shifted its winter meetings to Houston last week — awarded next year's All-Star game to the new Domed Stadium, providing proper financial arrangements can be made.

The stadium will be opened in April by the Houston Astros baseball club and will be used by the Oilers during the AFL season.

Twenty-two records were broken or tied in Saturday's game, almost all of them for offense.

On the first play the West rubbed one statistic out of the book when quarterback Len Dawson passed 73 yards to fullback Keith Lincoln for a touchdown.

Lincoln would up the game's leading ground gainer with 78 yards.

Gillman's Chargers played a large part in the rout of the East.

Lincoln, who was injured early in the title game with the Bills, was selected as most valuable player. He scored twice, one on the pass from Dawson and again in the fourth period when he snagged a pitchout and sprinted 80 yards for another record.

John Hadl, who hardly played against Buffalo, three three touchdown passes and completed 14 of 34 for 151 yards.

New Mark In 'Star' Bowling

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Harry Smith of Boston went strike happy again yesterday and cracked the 30-game record at the $100,000 All-Star Bowling Tournament.

The gangling, grim-faced pro fired a 1406 six-game series in the second round of the quarter-finals yesterday to boost his total for the entire qualifying route to 6614, an average of more than 220. The old record of 6555 was set by Bill Bunetta of Fresno, Calif., in 1961.

Smith's big series included his second 279 game of the tournament. He has also authored a 278 here.

"Well, here we go again," cracked Smith as reporters, fans and photographers clustered in back of him to watch what they hoped would be his 10th straight strike.

Despite a fairly good hit, Smith left the No. 4 pin intact.

Smith has a 110-pin lead over runner-up Fred Lening of Yardley, Pa., as the men entered the third and last quarter-final round today. The field of 216 will be chopped to 72 tonight for Tuesday's semifinals.

Bob Strampe of Detroit, winner of the 1964 All-Star, may not get an opportunity to defend his title in the match-play finals. His 6203 total placed him 32nd in the field.

SERIOUS STRAITS

The women's defending champion is in even more serious straits. LaVerne Carter rolled a six-game series of 1008 in the second round of women's qualifying. Her 2167 total for two days and 12 games mired her in 98th place in a field of 216 girls.

Jean Winsch, a housewife from South Bend, Ind., blasted a 205-215-237-181-208-224 — 1270 series to take command of the women's division with a 2451 total.

Betty Kuczynski of Chicago claimed second place after shooting a 1258 series which brought her total to 440. Jean Eder of Westfield, N.J., was third with 1146-2353.

Two-time champion Sylvia Wene of Philadelphia, not originally scheduled to compete in the tournament, entered the event today as a substitute for a girl who overslept and missed her squad. Because she was a late entry, Miss Wene absorbed a 60-pin penalty and her 1946 total placed her 209th.

The women's field will also be cut to 72 after today's six-game round. Semifinals for both men and women consist of two six-game blocks Tuesday. The round robin finals begin Wednesday and end Sunday, Jan. 24, with the championship matches.

High Jump Ace Thomas Quits Track

BOSTON (AP) — John Thomas, two-time Olympic medal winner in the high jump who vaulted from obscurity to international renown almost overnight, says he is retiring from track because "I can't afford to continue."

"I have no choice," the 24-year-old said today. He explained he's in debt and has only a part time job as a hospital technician.

Thomas added he has resigned the hotel sales representative job offered him which had helped see him financially clear to participate in the Tokyo Games last fall. Thomas said the resignation had been "by mutual agreement."

Although he recently underwent a hernia operation, Thomas says he's 18 pounds lighter and "never felt better physically."

The lad who has cleared the once magic seven foot barrier over 100 times including his top 7-3½ effort said:

IN DEMAND

"Because of my reputation as a high jumper, I'm always in demand for appearances at various indoor meets, sometimes in two widely separated cities within three days.

"This means hours spent training, traveling and competing. I can't earn a living and do all those things too.

I've devoted 13 of my 24 years to high jumping. I've worked hard to be a top one over the last eight years.

"But I don't have any regrets. If I had it to do all over again, I'd do the same thing."

Thomas is fiercely proud of his Olympic medals and quick to praise the Russians who edged him in 1960 and last year for first place.

The former Boston University star had several winter indoor campaigns with Russian Valery Brumel.

As a Boston University freshman Thomas soared to fame at an indoor meet at Dartmouth when he cleared 6-11¾. His next time out he did 7-0 and was on his way.

Cassius Says Boxing Needs 'White Hopes'

not talking hate. I'm talking about what everyone says but nobody says out loud.

"If we had more white men like Gene Tunney and Jack Dempsey, and me fighting them, we'd draw a 30 million dollar gate.

"What we need is more white hopes. That's why I'm pulling for the washerwoman (Chuvalo) to knock out the rabbit (Patterson).

WHITE MASSES

"The masses — the white masses that buy most of the tickets at fights — would like it better if there was some white top contender to challenge someone like me."

As Clay noted, not much is said aloud these days about "white hopes." Joe Louis' popularity in the Thirties and Forties and changing public opinion have wiped out the "white hope" buildups of the Jack Johnson era.

Johnson, rated by experts as one of the greatest fighters of all time, was a controversial figure from the time he won the heavyweight title from Tommy Burns in Sydney, Australia, in 1908, until his death in an auto accident in Raleigh, N.C., 38 years later. While he was champion, tournaments to develop a "white hope" sprung up all over the United States.

Tunney and Dempsey, both former heavyweight champions, were among the 21 present and former world champions who graced the two-tier dais at the BWA's award dinner honoring light heavyweight champion Willie Pastrano, former welterweight and middleweight champion Mickey Walker, and one-time welterweight contender Billy Graham .

Pastrano received the Edward J. Neil Plaque as the BWA's Fighter of the Year; Walker was presented the James J. Walker Memorial Plaque for "long and meritorious service to boxing," and Graham was given the Good Guy award for his cooperation with the press and services to boxing and youth and veteran groups.

Cal, Stanford Fall Again; Sweet Revenge For Dons

USC And UCLA Romp; Beavers Have Problems

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Four rented cars—escorted by the Washington Highway Patrol —and two chartered airplanes carried the Oregon State Beavers to a basketball upset at the hands of Washington State Saturday in the Pacific Athletic Conference.

The Beavers, who lost to Washington Friday 79-70, were bottled in at Seattle's airports by a layer of fog that blanketed the Northwest. Despite the police escorted caravan and the hops in two light planes, the Beavers barely made it in time for the televised conference game 300 miles away in Pullman, Wash.

The Cougars surprised the powerful Beavers and thumped Oregon State road weary team 64-53.

In other conference games, UCLA won its 13th in a row, defeating Stanford 80-66. Southern California upended California 75-55. Oregon topped Washington 65-58.

Oregon State had been favored to challenge the Bruins for conference supremacy at the start of the season, but the loss to WSU brought their league record to 1-3. WSU is now 2-2.

UCLA's potential all-America guard Gail Goodrich guided the Bruins to an early 10-1 lead over the Stanford Indians. Kieth Erickson with 21 points and Goodrich with 15 continued the lead throughout the game.

Indian forward Bob Bedeill with 22 points was high scorer in the contest. The Bruins—No. 1. collegiate team in the nation —are now 4-0 in the league and 13-1 for the season. The Indians are 2-2 and 7-4.

USF Clobbers Santa Clara; Pacific Next

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The University of the Pacific basketball team will challenge the San Francisco Dons' dominance of the West Coast Athletic Conference when the teams return to league play.

WCAC teams spend the next two weeks facing non-conference opponents, but on Feb. 5 Pacific tangles with the Dons. Both clubs have 3-0 league records following this weekend's activity.

The Dons avenged their only loss of the season by walloping Santa Clara 89-77 Saturday. UOP downed St. Mary's 61-51.

In the other league game Santa Barbara lost to San Jose State 72-65.

The Dons, ninth-ranked collegiate team in the nation, had lost only one game in 12 starts going into Saturday's game with the Bronco's. That was on Dec. 30 when the Bronco's won the WCAC pre-season Tournament, beating USF 73-71. The loss did not count in the league's standings.

Fire Official Takes Time To Rescue Blazing Car

Carl H. Modell, Tamalpais Fire Protection District commissioner, was a little late for rehearsal yesterday with the San Rafael recreation orchestra.

En route to San Rafael, he saw a car approaching with sparks flying from under the engine and the driver, apparently, unaware of it.

"I chased him half a mile and flagged him down on outer La Verne Avenue," said Modell. "Then I called our fire boys and we got the fire out. It was a rag." The driver, Greg Bird, of 444 La Verne Avenue, had just had his motor overhauled and someone had left a rag on his engine. When he stopped, he found it had also affected his brakes.

Ex-Marinite Arrested On Marijuana

A routine act of sending a shirt to a laundry yesterday landed a former Sausalito resident in Marin County Jail.

Randy George Buchnam, 26, now of Big Sur, was arrested for investigation of illegal possession of marijuana after a matchbox containing $15 worth of marijuana — enough to make about 10 cigarettes—was found in his shirt at Mill Valley Laundromat, 118 Throckmorton Avenue.

Lt. William Walsh of Mill Valley police said today Buchnam, who had resided at 60 Lower Crescent in Sausalito, left the shirt for laundering last Tuesday. The laundry owner, Dick Burns, found the matchbox and contents, and notified police.

A warrant for Buchnam's arrest was issued by Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Municipal Court. He was arrested by Monterey County sheriff's officers and returned to Marin.

Buchnam was released on $2,750 bail yesterday pending arraignment in Marin Municipal Court.

Alert Grocery Shopper May Find Smart Investment Clues

NEW YORK (UPI)—The woman investing in stocks has the grocery and department store as well as the financial pages going for her as guides to smart investment.

The things a woman sees in her daily shopping rounds are the quiet advisers, says a woman securities analyst who teaches investment courses at New York University's division of general education and at the New School for Social Research.

Claire B. Benenson cited some instances of what she means about growth stock potentials: the company that has announced production of an electric toothbrush to sell at about half the price of brushes from its competitors; the manufacturer who has developed the leather substitute which may soon have as many uses as the original; or some time ago, the firm first to announce the low calorie liquid diet.

"OR," SAID MRS. BENENSON, "a woman could have spotted the company that originally was basically a soup packer but now is expanding and filling grocery shelves with a diversity of products."

Mrs. Benenson believes a woman's natural nose for a bargain also can help in stock purchasing. "Wait for the white sales," she said.

Stock bargains might come along toward the end of a year when a big holder dumps stocks on the market for tax purposes. Or, she added, when a company runs into management problems and its stocks drop. Buy then—there's a good chance of a new climb. She cited the case of one car manufacturer whose stocks were "quite depressed" until new management came in and they turned upward.

THE SECURITIES analyst is the trim red-haired wife of Lawrence Benenson, publisher of "Realty," for the real estate trade, and she is the mother of 18-year-old twin sons.

She was born in East Orange, N.J., daughter of a banker, "So I grew up on financial talk." She was graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Wellesley College at the age of 19.

Her formal indoctrination into the financial world came in a job with Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Smith. She studied also at the New York Institute of Finance—"Where Wall Street goes to school."

MRS. BENENSON said there's a growing increase among women in the stock market. She cited a New York Stock Exchange census that showed of the 17 million people owning securities, 5.5 million are housewives and non-employed adult women.

MRS. BENENSON'S major advice to the woman who wants in the market is to get to know her broker, or brokers personally. It's perfectly all right to use more than one, she said—and a good idea to select them for their specialties if yours is to be a large investment.

And don't be afraid to ask questions of broker or brokers. "Some women are embarrassed to," she said. She told one broker's story of a client—a widow he'd "inherited" after many years of handling her husband's investments. He'd been buying and selling utilities for her for three years until one day she said to him shyly:

"Now, I'd like to try some common stock."

WOMEN IMPRESS NEIGHBORS—

Do Men Really Have Better Taste In Furnishings?

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

Sylvia Gersten, decorator of both offices and homes, concludes that executive suites are more tastefully done than residences—if the executive is the one making the decorating decisions.

"I've found that men have better taste generally in furnishings than women," said Mrs. Gersten of New York City. "Women are much more competitive, to the point where they will sacrifice good taste and good design in the home for the sake of impressing the neighbors.

"The question I get constantly from women is, 'What are they using now?', said the interior designer who's had 20-plus years in the field.

"A WOMAN'S HOME to her represents a display of affluence. And today, she's so furnishings-conscious that to comment, 'My decorator says,' has become a status thing."

Mrs. Gersten said that men "like to have their offices something looking different from what the home looks like. At home, the wife's tastes usually prevail. But to the executive, the office should be his baby. After all, he spends a third of his time there."

"Contrary to what a lot of people think," Mrs. Gersten said, "men like strong colors, like texture in fabrics, on the walls. They're not afraid of red, or orange, of strong greens. Of course, you don't use these strong colors en masse. But when I do an office, one of them usually will be there.

"You have to keep in mind, however, that the office design has to be in keeping with the man's position."

MRS. GERSTEN complains that many of today's offices hardly reflect the personality of the men occupying them—for a major reason. Companies will turn over the whole series of executive suits to one designer who comes up with a uniform scheme throughout—"The result, usually featuring glass cloth curtains and planters—is the sterile look."

"I'm tired of it," she added, "and the men I've worked with say they feel the same way. They don't like to see their offices wherever they go."

The decorator, New York-born, is married to Richard Gersten, a certified public accountant, and she holds a degree in fine arts from New York University.

RECENTLY SHE instituted a different service for either office or home — a "package deal" in which she or one of her staff of eight decorators for a flat fee will call on the prospective client and in a day of consultation (it may take longer on large projects) will produce a complete floor plan, identification of merchandise, samples of fabrics and wall coverings, yardages, notes and sketches, costs and sources where everything down to the last pillow or picture can be purchased.

This service, she said, enables the woman of the house to do the shopping. Or the executive can turn the office plan over to a secretary to handle.

To be able to offer a complete selection of fabrics and such, Mrs. Gersten travels with two specially-built file cabinet-like sample cases. She looks like a modern version of the old-time drummer with his wares.

ALTA MODA ITALIAN STYLE

This long Arabian nights dream of an evening gown by Eleanora Garrett of Rome is done in pale blue and silver lame and will be among the 1965 spring and summer fashions unveiled at shows being held currently in Florence and shifting to Rome on Wednesday. This gown features a draped bodice clasped by a jewel from which stem dividing folds on the front, and it is mantled by a rich, shiny cape with Sphynx-flavored hood, also jewel clasped. The hood is in the same hues as the gown. Italian designer trends so far predict short skirts, many teamed with fancy-patterned stockings. Designer Laura Aponte's short hand-knit lace cocktail skirts will be worn with matching sheer stockings, all worked in gold and apillettes.

Business is slow at the San Rafael office of the Department of Motor Vehicles, according to manager Dave Davis.

Deadline for vehicle registration renewal is Feb. 4. Penalties will be added to renewal bills submitted after that date.

The San Rafael office at 1926 Fourth Street will be open until noon on the next two Saturdays. Weekday office hours are from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily.

Old Novato District Trustees Will Meet

A special meeting of the board of the old Novato Unified School District has been called for 8 p.m. today at the administration building by William H. Kirk, president.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Best Way To Play Hand Depends On Where You Live

The best way to play a bridge hand may depend on where you live.

Almost any play is safe in the United States, Great Britain, and the Scandinavian countries, but you have to watch your step in countries with a Latin tradition.

North	East	South	West
1 ♣	1 ◇	1 ♡	Pass
2 ♡	Pass	4 ♡	All Pass

Opening lead — ◇ J

Suppose you are South. You allow West to win the first trick with the jack of diamonds. He continues the suit, and East wins. East leads a third high diamond through you.

RUFF HIGH

If you think that East has the king of hearts, you can ruff high. West will over-ruff, as the cards lie, and you will eventually lose a spade trick. Your partner will say that you should have made the contract, because that is the nature of partners in all countries, but you can probably prove that your line of play was not really terrible.

The best line of play is to discard a spade on the third diamond. You win the next trick and stake the contract on a finesse through West for the king of hearts.

This succeeds, and you make your contract. No partner has ever been known to complain when you make your contract.

PLAY TO AVOID

A third line of play must be avoided in hot-blooded countries. You get off to a good start by discarding a spade on the third diamond. You win the next trick and lead the queen of hearts through West.

When West plays a low heart, you go into a long stew. You think deeply and look suspiciously at both opponents.

Finally you play dummy's ace of trumps, hoping to catch the singleton king.

DOES NOT FALL

The king of hearts does not fall, but you may if your partner is a vigorous type. After a play of this kind in a Latin country, your best procedure is to keep moving. A moving target is harder to hit.

Don't play for a singleton king when you are missing two small cards in addition to the king.

It's against percentage and unfair to your insurance company.

DAILY QUESTION

As dealer, you hold:
♠ K 9 3
♣ A

What do you say?

Answer: Pass.

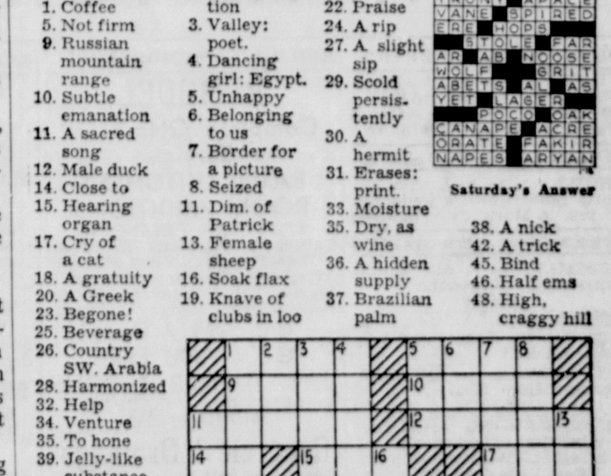

The hand is not quite worth an opening bid of one heart and is far too good for an opening bid of three hearts. Pass first and show your strength, if possible, by bidding later.

NEW GRAPHIC ARTS CLASS — Industrial Arts teacher Anthony Compagno demonstrates how to ink a hand operated press for members of the new graphic arts class at Redwood High School. Students John Craemer of Greenbrae (left), Rick Scripture of Kentfield and James Bedilion of Tiburon watch the demonstration. Compagno hopes the class will be able to take over printing of the Redwood Bark next year.
(Redwood High School photo)

Graphic Arts Class May Publish Paper

The new graphic arts class at Redwood High School may take over printing of the student weekly, the Redwood Bark, next year if the school buys an offset press by then.

Graphic arts instructor Anthony Compagno said he hopes this, and other printing he expects will be done by the class, will lessen the load of the Tamalpais High School Print Shop which does printing for all three high schools in the Tamalpais district.

Presently the class has two hand-operated pilot presses, an automatic platen press and a proof press. Class members are learning to print things like calendars, business cards, dance bids, posters and invitations.

The curriculum also includes instruction in bookbinding, linoleum block and silk screen printing and rubber stamp making.

Compagno, an instructor in industrial arts, worked with Supt. Chester Carlisle for two years preparing curriculum for the course and getting the equipment together. The class started last fall.

Student printing operations are nothing new to Compagno. He printed the invitations to his own wedding five years ago when he was a student at San Francisco State College.

Aside from the activities scheduled at the center, the district has activities at other locations, Gordon announced. These outside activities are:

Sports Night, for men and women, Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m. at Terra Linda High School gymnasium; Bowling, Thursdays, leaving center at 3:40 p.m. for Greenbrae Lanes; Folk Dancing, Tuesdays at 3:30 p.m. at Vallecito School for children of junior high school age; Adult Square Dance, Wednesdays at 8 p.m. at Bernard Hoffman School.

Gordon said the district also plans to start a string orchestra for beginners under direction of Marie E. Milburn. Those who play the violin, viola, cello and string bass are welcome to join, he said.

Skilled craftsmen have been cleaning the time-stained interior of London's Westminster Abbey with soap and water. The gloomy walls, described in official guidebooks as a "dirty, chocolate hue," now glisten anew, revealing the original white stone, marble and bright gold-leaf tracery.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Heat Camera Is Being Used For Circulatory Disorders

VAN DELLEN

The thermograph is a relatively new heat camera, used to diagnose cancer and a variety of circulatory disorders. The skin is warmer when the circulation is good and colder when the flow of blood is reduced. Tumors also emit heat and malignant lesions are warmer than benign growths.

The apparatus is a sensitive heat detector combined with modern optical and electronic equipment. It contains a camera that transforms into visible light the invisible infra-red energy rays given off from the surface of the body. Recordings are made on an ordinary Polaroid black and white film. The end result is a heat map of the patient. It is a sophisticated technic for measuring surface temperature.

THE CAROTID artery in the neck divides into two branches just below the ear. One branch (internal) penetrates the skull and brings blood to the brain. The other (external) goes to the temples and forehead.

The temperature of the skin is the same on both sides of the forehead of healthy persons. If the flow of blood to this area is blocked by an obstruction in the common and internal carotid artery, the skin is cool on that side. The sensitive thermograph detects the difference. The developed film (thermogram) reveals a pattern resembling a dark smudge over the eye and root of the nose on the involved side.

THE APPARATUS is a new tool to help diagnose stroke and to locate the site where the circulation is blocked. This is important because it now is possible to by-pass with a graft an occluded accessible artery. To avoid misunderstanding, we must make it clear that other diagnostic methods are available for this condition.

Thermography still is experimental in detecting cancer. We hope it will prove helpful as a screening device in locating tumors of the breast that are too small to be felt with the hand. It also is used to localize the placental site prior to birth. This information is helpful when doing a cesarean section and in obstetrical emergencies.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

COLD BRINGS PAIN

B. T. writes: Why do I get pain in the chest when I take cold foods or drinks? I have to wait for it to disappear before eating or imbibing again.

REPLY

The cold is causing spasm or constriction of the lower part of the esophagus, adjacent to the stomach entrance. May we suggest an X-ray?

PENICILLIN FOR SYPHILIS

T. Q. writes: Can syphilis be cured with one shot of penicillin?

REPLY

No. The most effective treatment of early syphilis consists of three injections of 1.2 million units of penicillin on alternate days.

Today's Health Hint — A foreign body in the ear or nose should be removed by a physician.

DARK LENSES

I. R. writes: Is it harmful to wear dark glasses to view television at night?

REPLY

No, but dark lenses may strain the eyes. These glasses are used to screen out the sun's rays and there is no advantage in wearing them indoors, more so when viewing television. It is easier to lessen the brightness of the television screen.

ROUGH WART

Mrs. M. S. writes: How does other warts? Even if these warts do not annoy, should they be removed?

REPLY

A keratosis wart is scalier and is considered precancerous. It should be removed via radiation or surgery.

Murphy To Visit Flood-Hit Areas

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sen. George Murphy, R-Calif., says he'll tour flood-ravaged counties of Northern California early this week because he is "deeply concerned over recovering progress for victims of the flood disaster" and wants to learn what more can be done.

Murphy, who returned home from Washington Saturday, said he would visit Del Norte, Shasta and Trinity counties today and part of Tuesday, accompanied by representatives of the Army Corps of Engineers and the U.S. Reclamation Bureau.

Murphy said the survey would be made via airplane and helicopter, with some on-the-ground inspection. He also planned to visit supervisors in Santa Rosa, Ukiah and Eureka.

Special Meeting Due For Novato Board

A special meeting of the governing board of the new Novato Unified School District has been called for 8:30 p.m., today at Meadow Park School.

The meeting will immediately follow the San Jose School District board meeting at the same location. The board will consider the superintendent's recommendations on administrative staff for the new district, according to Daniel H. Barber, board president.

Delivering letters is one of the oldest public services. In 500 B.C., Darius the Great operated a postal system throughout Persia. Post is derived from the Latin positus, meaning "placed," because horses were stationed at intervals to relay Roman dispatches.

TELEVISION REVIEW

'Special' Comedy Wasn't Special

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — CBS-TV attempted a one-hour comedy-melodrama "special" last night about a group of criminal exiles in a fleabag hotel in a country with no extradration treaties. The all-star cast included Cyril Ritchard, Buster Keaton, Robert Horton, Dolores Del Rio, Paul Lukas, Hoagy Carmichael, Walter Slezak, Angie Dickinson and Ray Walston.

The teleplay, "The Man Who Bought Paradise," was, alas, not "special" at all, except perhaps in reverse proportion to the star-power employed so wastefully and almost to no no point; and despite the services of a noted writer, Richard Alan Simmons, and a usually outstanding producer - director, Ralph Nelson. This outcome, however, was not entirely unexpected since the program was completed quite a while ago, and was originally scheduled for 90 minutes, but was shelved.

With all the firepower and talent available, one is tempted to wonder whether the well-known machinations and butchering that can occur at a network took place this time as well. More likely, however, one is tempted merely to conclude that this venture, which was of the type that must walk a tightrope of exquisite delicacy and precision, simply was one of those very bad days all around.

In brief, the plot concerned the presence of a new American exile (Horton) who was marked for murder by the hotel's boarders because his continued residence in the country might have resulted in an extradition treaty, thereby endangering their positions. In the end, this shrewd fellow, a financial wizard, winds up finagling them all silly, finally bribing them to pay him off with a large sum so that he can return in some style to the United States with his faithful ex-wife (Miss Dickinson).

The result last night was a leaden hour, ranging from mediocre to embarrassing. As constructed, it had nothing exceptional to tell, no exceptional way to tell the story it had, no exceptional acting or writing or directing. It might have been another hour of "Hawaiian Eye" or something in that class. It was not very serious, not very funny, not very anything except perhaps astonishing.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Highlights of President Johnson's inauguration Wednesday will be beamed to European televiewers via Telstar II . . . CBS news coordinator of the satellite transmission, says: "In addition to Western Europe, Iron Curtain nations including Czechoslovakia, East Germany, Poland and Hungary will be able to watch the proceedings."

Architect-Council Talk Set On San Rafael City Hall

The San Rafael City Council will open its meeting an hour early tonight—at 7 o'clock—to discuss with architects the choice of materials for the new city hall.

Representatives of San Rafael Architects Associated will have samples of floor covering, wall and ceiling materials and window frames with comparative cost estimates to present to the council.

Moving ahead on the city hall project, the council will open bids on demolition of the remaining houses on the C Street end of the new city hall block, which is bounded by C and E streets and Fifth and Mission avenues.

Up for council decision also will be a proposal by Dan Coleman Associates, engineers, for the second stage of the Bret Harte drainage project.

Two appeals from planning commission decisions are scheduled: Paul Sade on turndown of rezoning of property at Bayo Vista; and Mobil Oil Co.'s appeal of refusal of architectural approval for a service station.

Development of the Cesare Bettini Memorial Amphitheater in Gerstle Park is scheduled for further discussion.

The council will have before it a request from the county board of supervisors for an opinion on hiring Stanford Research Institute for the second phase of a study of attracting industry to the county. Mayor John F. McInnis has already publicly opposed this, calling it a waste of money.

Hub Double Sessions On Agenda

A large turnout is expected tomorrow night when the San Anselmo School District board discusses whether to set up double sessions for next year or lease four portable classrooms.

The meeting, set for 8 p.m., is being held in the Isabel Cook School multi-purpose room in case many parents attend.

District Supt. Stephen L. Parodi said notices of the meeting would be sent to parents of pupils now in the sixth grade at Wade Thomas School and the fourth grade at Yolansdale School, since they would most likely wind up in double sessions if the board schedules them.

The parents will be asked to say whether they object to double sessions strongly enough to prefer seeing $12,000 diverted from other parts of the school program to lease portable classrooms.

Major uses of saltine crackers, in order, are: with soup, with cheese, in recipes, with peanut butter, with jam, with salads.
